OWNER/CEO

5TH YEAR WITH THE BILLS

TERRY PEGULA

Terry Pegula is a self-made success story, rising from humble beginnings to become one of the most respected leaders in the energy industry, and one of very few professional sports owners to operate franchises in multiple sports.

Together with his wife Kim, Terry realized a life-long dream on October 8, 2014. The Pegulas received the unanimous approval of NFL owners to succeed Pro Football Hall of Famer Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. and become the second owners in the storied history of the Buffalo Bills.

"Owning any professional team is about winning and the primary goal of our ownership will be to win the Super Bowl and bring the championships to the city of Buffalo, and myself and my family will dedicate ourselves to that," he said at his introductory press conference.

Terry serves as CEO of the Bills and currently sits on the NFL's Health and Safety committee. In 2016, the Pegulas were honored with the Tank Younger Award, which recognizes extraordinary contributions towards diversity in the NFL.

Raised in Carbondale, PA, Terry is a 1969 graduate of Scranton Preparatory School. He entered Penn State University as a math major and was accepted into the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering Program with a scholarship. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973 and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, TX. He later joined Felmont Oil Co. as an Area Engineer, a decision that brought him to Olean, NY in 1975.

In 1983, Terry borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to create East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and production company operating in the Appalachian Basin. Over the next 27 years, Terry built East into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc., which continues to be active today. In 2012, Terry formed JKLM Energy. JKLM is staffed with many former East Resources employees and takes pride in contributing to U.S. energy independence by producing Pennsylvania natural gas, elevating the state into one of the top producing regions in the world.

Upon the sale of East Resources assets, Terry focused his attention on his love of sports. In September of 2010, the Pegulas announced a gift of $102 million to construct Pegula Ice Arena, paving the way for Division I hockey at Penn State.

On February 22, 2011, Terry and Kim purchased the NHL's Buffalo Sabres. They followed up their commitment to hockey by purchasing the AHL's Rochester Americans later that year, restoring a longtime affiliation between the Sabres and Amerks. The Pegulas opened Harborcenter in 2014. The $200 million dollar complex, next door to the Sabres' KeyBank Center, includes two hockey rinks, training facilities, four restaurants, a full-service Marriott Hotel and parking. The combination of KeyBank Center and Harborcenter have allowed Buffalo to be a center for hockey, hosting the 2016 NHL Draft, NHL Combine, 2018 World Junior Hockey Championships, and the 2019 NCAA Frozen Four.

In addition to overseeing the family's sports operations, Terry runs JKLM Energy in Pittsburgh, and his family's business operations in Boca Raton, Florida. Terry and Kim have five children between them: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew.

OWNER/ PRESIDENT

KIM PEGULA

Kim Pegula is the President and CEO of Pegula Sports and Entertainment, and President of both the Buffalo Bills and Buffalo Sabres.

A native of Fairport, N.Y. She attended nearby Houghton College and graduated in 1991 with a degree in communications. Kim began her professional career with East Resources in 1991 and was involved with the company until its sale in 2010.

On October 8, 2014, Kim, along with her husband Terry, realized a long-time dream as they became only the second owners of the Buffalo Bills. Kim currently serves on the NFL's Super Bowl and Major Events Advisory Committee, Business Ventures Committee, and NFL Foundation Committee. In May of 2018, Kim became President, overseeing all of the franchise's business operations.

Kim got her start in sports in 2011 after she and Terry purchased the Buffalo Sabres. Kim serves on the NHL Board of Governors and assumed the role of President of the Sabres in May 2018, becoming the first female to hold the post of President for both an NHL and NFL team. Kim and Terry's sports ownership also extends to the NLL Buffalo Bandits, the AHL Rochester Americans and the NWHL Buffalo Beauts.

After owning multiple professional sports in the same market, Kim launched Pegula Sports and Entertainment (PSE) in 2014, creating a management company that oversees the business operations across all Pegula-owned entities and sports teams. Since its inception, PSE has expanded its reach to include Harborcenter, a multipurpose facility anchored by two NHL-size ice rinks and a Marriott Hotel franchise; PicSix, a full service creative agency specializing in video, digital and marketing creative services for a variety of companies, a Hospitality division that operates multiple restaurants including (716) Food and Sport, a Tim Hortons Café & Bake Shop franchise, The Healthy Scratch cafe and the newest addition The Draft Room. In 2017, PSE added ADPRO Sports to their portfolio, providing branded merchandise to teams and companies across the country.

PSE, through its managed entities, has been key to bringing new business opportunities to Buffalo including multi-year agreements to host the NHL Combine, 2016 NHL Draft, 2018 World Junior Championships, 2019 Frozen Four NCAA Men's Hockey Tournament, as well as a wide variety of stadium and arena concerts and national and international tournament events at all levels.

Kim and the PSE entities have been honored with a number of awards including Business First's Most Influential People, four NYS Emmy Awards for sports content, Buffalo Best Place To Work, the Tank Younger Award for embracing diversity in the NFL, and numerous individual recognitions of PSE's staff.

Kim and Terry have also given back to encourage the growth of sports and the many intangible benefits they believe sports creates for individuals, fans and their community. In 2010, the Pegulas gave an unprecedented $102 million for the creation of the Pegula Ice Arena at Terry's alma mater Penn State. The facility allowed for Penn State's hockey program to become a NCAA Division I team and was the final piece for the formation of the Big Ten Hockey Conference. Kim also gave back to her alma mater, Houghton College with a gift of $12 million to build the Kerr-Pegula Athletic Complex allowing Houghton College athletics to become a Division III program.

Kim currently splits her time between the Bills, Sabres and PSE offices as she leads all business operations.

GENERAL MANAGER

21ST YEAR IN THE NFL

BRANDON BEANE

Brandon Beane was named General Manager of the Buffalo Bills on May 9, 2017. He joined the Bills after a 19-year stint with the Carolina Panthers – including two seasons as the team’s assistant general manager (2015-16).

Beane, who became the 13th general manager in franchise history, helped the Bills gain their first playoff berth since 1999.

While making the playoffs in his first year in 2017, Beane also engineered several trades that resulted in the Bills selecting #7 (QB Josh Allen) and #16 overall (LB Tremaine Edmunds) in the 2018 draft while maintaining all of their 2019 draft capital.

In Carolina, Beane played a vital role in constructing the Panthers draft boards from 2012-17, evaluated professional and collegiate players and worked closely with the football operations staff on the negotiation of player contracts.

Throughout Beane’s time in Carolina, the Panthers won five NFC South division titles and two NFC conference championships. In 2012, Beane was named the Panthers interim general manager—holding the role for the final 10 games of the season. Carolina finished out the season with a 6-4 record under Beane’s watch.

Beane also worked closely with current Bills Head Coach Sean McDermott in Carolina, where McDermott served as defensive coordinator from 2011-16.

WE BELIEVE HIS VISION FOR THE BUFFALO
BILLS COMBINED WITH HIS DETAILED
FOR SUSTAINED SUCCESS.

- - BILLS OWNER TERRY PEGULA

“The most impressive thing I think that we accomplished is him and coach are joined at the hip and at the head.” said Bills owner Terry Pegula. “They think alike. They’re both very thorough people. They can make instantaneous decisions like a coach has to during the game but they also think stuff out to the point where you say, ‘Wow these guys are very thorough.’”

A cum laude graduate in communications studies from UNC-Wilmington in 1998 and a native of Stanly County, North Carolina, Beane (born July 27, 1976) began his career in 1998 with the Panthers communications department before moving on to fill various football operations/personnel roles with Carolina before being named the team's director of football operations in 2008.

Brandon and his wife, Hayley, have two sons, Tyson and Wes and reside in Orchard Park, NY. The family has two dogs, Bodie and Peanut. He enjoys golf, running (he finished a marathon in Wilmington, NC in 2010), racquetball and basketball.

HEAD COACH

20TH YEAR IN THE NFL

SEAN McDERMOTT

On January 11, 2017, the Buffalo Bills named Sean McDermott the 20th head coach in franchise history. McDermott joined the Bills after spending six seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Carolina Panthers.

In his first year in Buffalo, McDermott led the Bills to their first playoff berth since 1999 with a 9-7 record. He became the third coach in Bills history to earn a playoff berth in his first season at the helm, joining Joe Collier (1966) and Wade Phillips (1998). The Bills finished 7th in the NFL in turnover differential (+9), 10th in the NFL in fewest penalties (98), and 7th in special teams statistics. The 2017 Bills also won six home games for the first time since 1999.

While in Carolina, McDermott developed a top-10 defense in four of his six seasons in charge. Over his six-year tenure, the Panthers defense ranked second in the NFL in sacks (261), third in turnovers forced (169), sixth in rushing yards allowed per game (103.3), ninth in yards per game (339.1) and 12th in points allowed per game (22.1). In his time in Carolina, McDermott helped the Panthers to three division titles and a trip to Super Bowl 50.

In 2016, McDermott's defense put up impressive numbers in multiple categories. The Panthers finished second in the NFL in sacks (47), second in red zone defense (43.64%) and sixth in run defense (91.6).

BECAME THIRD HEAD COACH IN BILLS HISTORY TO EARN A PLAYOFF BERTH IN FIRST SEASON, JOINING JOE COLLIER AND WADE PHILLIPS

In 2015, McDermott's defense helped lead the way for the Panthers' 15-1 regular season and run to Super Bowl 50. The Panthers ranked second in the NFL in yards allowed per play (4.9), sixth in scoring defense (19.3) and total defense (322.9). The defense led the league in interceptions (24), takeaways (39), points off turnovers (148) and turnover differential (+20) and tied a franchise record with four interception return touchdowns. Four of his defenders - LBs Thomas Davis and Luke Kuechly, CB Josh Norman and DT Kawann Short - were named to the Pro Bowl and earned All-Pro honors.

In 2013, McDermott was named The Sporting News Coordinator of the Year when his unit ranked second in total defense (301.3). The Panthers also led the league in sacks (60) while finishing second in scoring defense (15.1). The defense helped propel Carolina to a 12-4 record, an NFC South title and the team's first playoff appearance since 2008. In allowing the franchise's fewest points since 1996, the defense set a team record with an NFL-low 21 touchdowns allowed.

McDermott came to Carolina following 12 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles. He spent his last two seasons in Philadelphia as defensive coordinator, helping the Eagles to the playoffs in each of those seasons.

In 2010, McDermott led one of the league's youngest defenses to top 10 rankings in takeaways and sacks. In his first season overseeing the Eagles' defense in 2009, McDermott was named the NFL's top defensive coordinator by Pro Football Weekly after his unit ranked third in the NFL with 38 takeaways and 44 sacks.

McDermott coached the secondary and linebackers before becoming defensive coordinator, learning under the late Jim Johnson, the Eagles' legendary defensive coordinator.

In 2007, McDermott took over the linebackers after serving as the secondary/safeties coach from 2004-06. Pro Football Hall of Famer Brian Dawkins was a Pro Bowler all three seasons, and fellow safety Michael Lewis joined him in 2004.

McDermott worked as the team's assistant defensive backs coach in 2003 and as the defensive assistant/quality control coach from 2001-02, assisting with linebackers. He joined the organization in 1998 as a scouting administrative coordinator before being promoted to assistant to the head coach in 1999.

An All-Atlantic 10 Conference choice at safety for William & Mary as a senior in 1997, McDermott graduated with a degree in finance and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1998. He and his wife Jamie, have three children.

FAST FACTS

About Coach McDermott

1 | Sean was an All-League Defensive Back in high school in 1992 and earned a spot as a walk-on on the William and Mary football team under head coach Jimmy Laycock. He eventually became a team captain and, as a senior, garnered All-Atlantic 10 and All-Eastern College Athletic Conference honors, while earning Atlantic 10's All-Academic team honors.

2 | A member of the LaSalle College High School Hall of Athletics in Pennsylvania, McDermott was a two-time All-Catholic League and a National Prep School Champion in 1992 and 1993 and went undefeated in 75 consecutive matches. He was named the Philadelphia Daily News and Philadelphia Inquirer Wrestler of the Year and was selected to the USA High School Wrestling Tournament.

3 | Sean's father was a football coach at West Chester and Ursinus, while his brother, Tim, is the Chief Business Officer for the Philadelphia Union of the MLS.

4 | Sean was a college teammate of Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin and Darren Sharper while at William and Mary.

5 | As a child, he collected football and baseball cards as well as jerseys of the top college football teams.

6 | Sean was born in Omaha, Nebraska.

SHOUTOUTS

- Alexander joins Bruce Smith as the only Bills to log a sack in seven straight games.
- Logged 58 tackles and three sacks in 16 games this past season.
- Bills Walter Payton Man of the Year nominee in 2017.
- Ranked number 91 by his peers on the NFL Top 100 Players of 2017 list.
- He signed a contract extension in March 2017.
- All-Pro Second Team selection in the 2016 NFL Pro Bowl.
- Was the 2016 NFL Pro Bowl Co-MVP.
- In his first season with the Bills in 2016, Alexander recorded 12.5 sacks, second only to a first-year Bill, with Bryce Paup recording 19 sacks in his first season with the Bills in 1995.
- Recorded the third most sacks in the NFL during the 2016 season.
- Earned a career high seven tackles on December 18, 2016 versus the Cleveland Browns.
- Received his first Pro Bowl selection in 2012.

FIRST-AND-10

LORENZO ALEXANDER joined the Buffalo Bills in 2016 after spending time with the Washington Redskins, Arizona Cardinals, and Oakland Raiders. Following his collegiate career at the University of California, Alexander entered the league as an undrafted free agent with the Carolina Panthers in 2005.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A TRANSFORMER

Throughout his NFL career, Lorenzo Alexander has had to adapt. Alexander entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent 300-pound defensive lineman. At one point, he was asked to play offensive line. After stints in Carolina and Baltimore his first two years, he found a home in Washington in 2006 and made his name as a special teams standout.

His transformation to finding a regular defensive position was not complete until he lost nearly 70 pounds in 2009. Former Redskins linebacker London Fletcher served as Alexander's mentor during this stage in his career.

"In one offseason, he dropped a good 50 pounds or so," Fletcher recalled. "Losing that weight unleashed that athleticism that was hampered by all that extra weight. That helped him play better on the football field."

PERSONAL

Lorenzo and his wife, Manjanique, are parents to two daughters, Vanessa and Zoie, and two sons, Mason and Myles. Alexander graduated from the University of California with a degree in legal studies.

COMING UP ACES

Everywhere Lorenzo Alexander plays, he becomes a community standout. Alexander established the ACES Foundation where his mission is to support youth through emphasizing accountability, taking pride in the community, striving for educational excellence while promoting a healthy mind, body and spirit through sports.

This past season, Alexander supported his foundation by representing them for the My Cause, My Cleats initiative.

A MAN OF THE YEAR

For his achievements both on the field and in the community, the Buffalo Bills nominated Lorenzo Alexander as the team's Walter Payton Man of the Year nominee.

Well respected by his teammates, coaches, and the entire Bills organization, Alexander continues to use his platform to inspire those around him to act. Lorenzo has influenced the community through his efforts in initiatives such as the Play 60 program, Crucial Catch Family Fun Night, among many others.

17 QB JOSH ALLEN

6-5 237 ROOKIE

MAY 21, 1996 (AGE 22)

FIREBAUGH HIGH SCHOOL

ACQUIRED 2018

Drafted by the Bills in the first round of the 2018 NFL Draft.

SHOUTOUTS

- With the 7th pick, Allen is the highest quarterback taken in Bills' draft history and only the 4th ever taken in the first round.
- At the Senior Bowl, named the North team's Most Outstanding Player after going 9-of-13 for 158 yards and 2 touchdowns.
- Ran a 4.75 in the 40-yard dash at the Combine, which ranked third amongst all quarterbacks.
- Earned Second Team All-Mountain West in 2017 despite missing two games due to injury.
- In 2016, led Wyoming to a Mountain Division co-championship and the school's first-ever appearance in the Mountain West Championship game.
- In his two seasons as Wyoming's starting quarterback, Allen accounted for 5,833 yards of total offense and was responsible for 57 touchdowns (passing-44, rushing-12 and receiving-1).

FIRST-AND-10

JOSH ALLEN arrives in Buffalo after spending three seasons at Wyoming (2015-17) and one year at Reedley College (2014). A second team All-Mountain West selection in 2017, Allen was the seventh selection of the first round by the Bills in 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A NO STAR RECRUIT

Despite racking up 5,269 yards and 59 touchdowns in his final two high school seasons at Firebaugh High School, Allen didn't receive a single offer from a Division I program due to only being 6-2 and 180 pounds at the time.

"I didn't have any stars. I was a no star, no offer guy out of high school. I sent emails every day to almost every coach in the nation. 'Please, please just offer me.' All I was asking for was an opportunity," said Allen in a 2017 ESPN College Gameday feature.

Allen eventually opted to attend Reedley College, where he threw for 2,055 yards and 26 touchdowns while simultaneously hitting a growth spurt that boosted his height to 6-5 and weight to 215 pounds.

Allen finally got his opportunity after his time in junior college, accepting Wyoming's scholarship offer over an offer from Eastern Michigan.

PERSONAL

The son of Joel and LaVonne Allen, Josh is the second of four children (two sisters and one brother). He earned his degree from Wyoming with a major in communications.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

PLAYING FOR THOSE WHO CAN'T

Allen played his high school ball at Firebaugh HS, a place where his family had deep ties. Allen's grandfather, Buzz Allen, donated the land the school was built upon.

Shortly after Buzz's passing during Josh's senior year, Firebaugh HS was set to square off with rival high school Dos Palos. Until that game, Firebaugh had never beaten Dos Palos. Josh led the Eagles to a W on his grandfather's birthday and post-game Josh called it a tribute to his late grandfather.

PHOTOBOMBING

Allen has wasted no time connecting with Bills fans since arriving in Buffalo. In early June, Allen made social media waves as he pulled over while driving by New Era Field to hop into Joe and Lorie Lovullo's wedding photos.

"To get out and to meet people in the community of Buffalo, it's been pretty awesome," Allen told The Buffalo News. "...Every time I talk to someone who's a Bills fan, all they say is 'it's a great place to play. We're going to love you to death here.'"

13 WR KELVIN BENJAMIN

FEBRUARY 5, 1991 (AGE 27)

BELLE GLADE, FLORIDA

GLADES CENTRAL HS

FLORIDA STATE

ACQUIRED 2017

Traded from Carolina on October 31, 2017 for a 3rd and 7th round pick in 2018.

SHOUTOUTS

- Caught his first TD as a Bill - an 8-yard grab from Nathan Peterman - in a heavy snowstorm vs. Ind (10/10/17).
- In 2014, set Panthers rookie records with 73 catches, 1,008 receiving yards, and 9 TDs.
- Earned NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month honors in September 2014.
- In 2013, became the first Florida State player to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season since Anquan Boldin in 2002.
- Grabbed two TD catches in NFC Divisional playoff game at Seattle (1/10/15), tying a team record.
- Led the Panthers with TD catches in 2014 (9) and in 2016 (7).
- Ranked 5th in NFL in 2016 in yards per catch (14.9) among receivers with 60+ receptions. He trailed Julio Jones (17.0), T.Y. Hilton (15.9), Tyrell Williams (15.4), and Brandin Cooks (15.0).

KELVIN BENJAMIN was acquired in a trade from Carolina at the trade deadline on October 31, 2017 for a 3rd and 7th round pick in 2018. A tall and powerful receiver, he was a first round draft choice (28th overall) of the Panthers in 2014. The Belle Glade, FL, native capped off his collegiate career at Florida State in 2013 with a 2-yard, game-winning touchdown catch from Jameis Winston with 13 seconds left in the BCS Championship.

DEEPER INSPIRATION

One week before the start of training camp in 2017, Kelvin's mother, Christine Benjamin, unexpectedly passed away.

"She was my everything," said Benjamin, who helped his mother retire early and moved her out of Belle Glade. "She sacrificed a lot for me."

LONG ROAD TO THE NFL

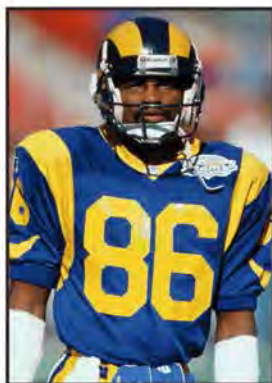

To find Benjamin playing in the NFL now is quite remarkable given that he began playing football as a sophomore in high school. "Man, I wasn't even thinking I was even going to college while I was in high school let alone play in the NFL," said Benjamin. "Then I was getting called to the principal's office after my first season of football to be looked at by college coaches. It was crazy. I still didn't believe [I was going to college] until my final year of high school."

PERSONAL

Is the son of the late Christine Benjamin. Has a daughter, Kelyiah, and a son, Kingsten. Has two English bulldogs, Mocha and Smokey.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BITS ON BENJAMIN

- Played collegiately with Bills tight end Nick O'Leary at Florida State.
- As a child, would often chase down rabbits in his hometown to help with his agility and speed.
- Played football and competed in the high jump and long jump while at Glades Central HS.
- Organized a family fun day called "Muck Madness" in his hometown of Belle Glade, otherwise known as Muck City. Benjamin aspires to help troubled kids as he continues his NFL career and do "anything I can to help brighten their day."

JESSIE'S BOY

Benjamin credits his high school coach, former NFL receiver Jessie Hester, for getting him to where he is today. "I didn't even know how to line up as a receiver when I started," said Benjamin. "He taught me everything, how to run routes, how to mentally prepare. He held me accountable. He saw something in me that I didn't see in myself."

Recalled Hester when they first met, "I said, 'Hey, how's basketball going.' He said he didn't play basketball; that he was coming out for football. I told him, 'I'll make you this promise. If you keep yourself out of trouble, make pretty good grades and come to school every day I can pretty much guarantee you're going to get a college scholarship.'"

RUSSELL BODINE (BO-dine) joins the Bills after spending the first four seasons of his NFL career with the Cincinnati Bengals (2014-17). Bodine originally entered the NFL in 2014 as a fourth round pick (111th overall) of the Bengals.

ATHLETIC BLOODLINES

Russell Bodine is the first member of his family to make it to the NFL, but he is certainly not the only athlete in his family.

Russell's mother, Gail Bodine, may be one of the best athletes in the family, having been the first All-American field hockey player at Boston's Northeastern University for a team that won the ECACs.

Brian Bodine, Russell's father, played tackle and guard at Trenton State.

His sister, Kaitlyn, played softball for Queens University in Charlotte, North Carolina, and was named Freshman of the Year in 2013 while recording a .413 batting average and a 3.06 ERA in 84.2 innings pitched.

Russell's uncle, Dave Zimmerman, was a center at Rutgers in the mid-1960s and his brother, Pete, also played nose tackle for the Scarlett Knights. Another one of Russell's uncles, Hank, played center at William and Mary.

PERSONAL

Russell recently got engaged to his now fiancé Catherine Wooten. The couple has two dogs named Deke and Quinn. At North Carolina, Bodine majored in communication studies.

MAT BOESEN leaves TCU (2016-17) after a two year collegiate career with the Horned Frogs. A California native, Boesen played for Boise State in 2013 and 2014 and then spent the 2015 season with Long Beach Community College. He totaled 93 tackles and 17.5 sacks in his two seasons with TCU.

SENIOR STANDOUT

Boesen took a winding road to reach his potential in college, but he broke out in a big way during his senior season in 2017.

Boesen played in 14 games as a redshirt senior and totaled 64 tackles, 11.5 sacks, 15 tackles for a loss and three forced fumbles.

Due to his standout play, Boesen was named a 2017 First Team All-American by Sports Illustrated and a Third Team All-American by the Associated Press. In addition to those honors, Boesen was named 2017 First Team All-Big 12 by the Associated Press.

Boesen's best game of the year was when he recorded a school record 5.5 sacks against Baylor. The 5.5 sacks were just a half sack short of tying the NCAA record for sacks in a single game.

PERSONAL

Born January 31, 1995 in Edina, Minnesota, Mat is the son of Chris and Carrie Boesen. He has two younger sisters, Carly and Morgan. He majored in general studies with an emphasis in sociology and graduated from TCU.

IKE BOETTGER arrives at the Bills after competing for the Iowa Hawkeyes (2013-17). An Iowa native, Boettger was moved from tight end to an offensive lineman during his freshman year.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD' A SECOND CHANCE

Boettger saw a prosperous 2016 season, garnering praise from media and was rewarded with a spot on his team's leadership group, one of only seven juniors to do so. As the 2017 Hawkeyes season started, nothing but optimism was on the horizon.

Boettger started at right tackle in a 44-41 OT win at Iowa State, the second game of the season, as the offense gained 497 yards. However, he was forced to leave in the second half due to injury and missed the remainder of the season with an Achilles tendon tear.

"That was the biggest obstacle I had to overcome. [The rehab] was longer than I expected, but it was ahead of schedule for [an] Achilles injury," Boettger said.

Knowing that the injury would end his career at Iowa, Ike worked hard in order to prove himself to NFL teams. He impressed many at Iowa's pro day, boasting a 3-cone time of 7.45 seconds, which would have tied for fifth among all offensive linemen at the NFL combine.

PERSONAL

The son of Tim and Kris Boettger and brother of Adrienne. Graduated from Iowa with a degree in enterprise leadership in the spring of 2017.

BREON BORDERS joined the Bills in 2017 after spending most of the 2017 season with the Raiders practice squad. Prior to entering the NFL in 2017 with the Raiders, Borders recorded 148 total tackles, one sack, 12 interceptions, 34 pass deflections, and two forced fumbles in 49 games at Duke.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BALLHAWK

Breon Borders is known for his ability to make plays in the secondary. At Statesville High School in his native home state of North Carolina, Breon was a three-year letterman and helped the Greyhounds to three state playoff berths. He earned First Team All-State honors as a senior after posting 91 tackles, 14 pass breakups, seven interceptions, three caused fumbles and two fumble returns for TDs. He lettered all four seasons at Duke and put up 12 INT's and 34 PBU's for the Blue Devils.

TRIPLE THREAT

Breon Borders played three sports at Statesville and excelled in all three. In addition to his efforts on the gridiron, Breon played basketball and ran track for the Greyhounds. Breon was the Player of the Year in 2013 after leading Statesville to the 2013 3A state championship basketball game. Breon was also named Athlete of the Year in track and field as a senior after being named the State Champion in the 300-meter hurdles in 2013. He was a three-time all-conference and all-county selection in track and field.

PERSONAL

Breon is Son of Chaketa Borders and Kaseem Miller. At Duke, he majored in cultural anthropology and business management. Has a son, Breon Jr.

QUAN BRAY is in his 4th NFL season after signing with Indianapolis as an undrafted free agent in 2015. After playing in 24 games with the Colts as a receiver and returner from 2015-17, Bray joined the Bills practice squad late in the 2017 season.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

QUAN BRAY FOUNDATION

Began the Quan Bray All-Purpose Foundation, which is based in Georgia, to "help kids that have been affected by domestic violence." He created it in memory of his mother, Tonya Bray, who tragically passed away when Quan was 18 years old. "I always hear her voice no matter what and this is a helpful way for me to keep her close to me."

Credits many people for helping him get through that tough time in his life, including Tre Tucker, a basketball coach in high school. "Whatever I needed, he did. He pushed me, too. He took really good care of me after my mom passed away."

8-YEAR OLD AUTOGRAPH

One of his most memorable games was scoring five touchdowns as an 8-year old for the Pine Mountain Raiders. "A lady came up to me and asked me for my autograph after the game. She said, 'You're going to be famous one day.'"

WAR EAGLE, BABY

Coined and would like to patent the phrase, "War Eagle, Baby." He said it on live television after committing to Auburn following the All-American Bowl.

PERSONAL

Son of the late Tonya Bray. Has a younger brother, Jymere. Earned a degree in public administration, becoming the first member of his family to do so. His cousin, Jason Bray, also played at Auburn.

FIRST-AND-10

RAFAEL BUSH comes to the Bills through free agency in 2018. The Bills are Bush's fifth team, after stints with the Saints, Lions, Broncos and Falcons. The safety has 196 combined tackles and two sacks in 76 games in his NFL career.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

INSPIRING OTHERS

In 2014, Bush founded "Camp Ambushed", a free youth football clinic designed to give participants seven to 16 years of age hands-on training in football fundamentals from Bush and other NFL players in his hometown of Williston.

"Some people call it giving back," Bush said. "I just call it inspiring others. In the town that I'm from, it's very small. I just want to come back and show them that whatever your dream is, it's something that you can achieve if you put your mind to it and show dedication."

LOCAL LEGEND

Bush's proudest accomplishment outside of the birth of his children, is the fact that he is the only person in the history of his high school to have his jersey retired. After totaling more than 3,500 rushing yards on his way to South Carolina State, Bush became the first person in school history to make it to the NFL.

PERSONAL

Born May 12, 1987 in Williston, South Carolina, Rafael is the son of Gwendolyn Bush and James Young. Bush studied sports communications and graduated from South Carolina State. He lives with his wife, Tonya, and their daughters, Makayla and Jordyn.

FIRST-AND-10

TRAVARIS CADET joined the Bills in 2017 after playing most recently with the New York Jets. Cadet entered the NFL in 2012 as an undrafted free agent with the New Orleans Saints. He spent time with the New England Patriots and San Francisco 49ers in 2015, before returning to the Saints. He was signed as a free agent by the Jets in September 2017.

BEYOND FOOTBALL

Travaris Cadet has made a name for himself off the football field, as well. Cadet is half-Haitian and when Hurricane Matthew impacted Haiti, he felt called to give back. He created the Cadet Academic Scholarships to help children in Haiti.

"I am trying to show kids that they have opportunities to make it through with putting an emphasis on education and maximizing on the educational process," Cadet told the Saints before the 2016 My Cause, My Cleats game. "That is how I was afforded the chance to go to college and then play in the NFL. I want kids to see our shoes and know that there is hope and that there is a way to a better life through education."

He says that his proudest achievement outside of football is his first donation to Haiti and the number one thing on his bucket list is to make more of an impact in the community.

PERSONAL

Cadet is the son of Alicia Davis. He attended Appalachian State where he earned his degree in criminal justice. He has a superman tattoo on his left hand because of sacrifice and trials.

FIRST-AND-10

Signed to the Bills practice squad late in 2017, CORY CARTER is in his 2nd season in Buffalo. Carter first joined the NFL by signing a reserve/futures contract with the Houston Texans in January 2017, but was released prior to the start of the season. A soccer player growing up, Carter did not begin playing football until his senior season of high school.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

UNLIKELY PATH TO NFL

"During my senior year of high school, my best friend growing up, Alvin Johnson, injured his ankle during the first game of the year as the kicker on the football team. They didn't have anyone else to kick. So he recommended me to the coaches and they pulled me from soccer practice during field goal drills. I kicked for the rest of the year."

"I was recruited more for soccer than for football and I never thought at any time about playing in the NFL. Only one scout came to my pro day at Texas Southern."

AGAINST ALL ODDS

Grew up playing soccer for CJSO (Central Jackson Soccer Organization). "The majority of us were African-American and we took a great deal of pride in that. Our team slogan was 'Against All Odds.' It's something I still adhere to."

PERSONAL

His mother, Josephine, is a nurse and his father, Harold, is a mailman. Has an older sister, Carmen. Has two dogs, a Chihuahua, Chewy, and a Mini Schnauzer, Cole. Earned a degree in accounting.

FIRST-AND-10

RYAN CARTER leaves Clemson (2013-17) after a five-year collegiate career with the Tigers. A Georgia native, Carter was signed by the Bills as a rookie free agent in 2018. During his career at Clemson, he was named the team's permanent co-captain and was the starting corner in Clemson's national championship game.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

OVERCOMING THE ODDS

All throughout Ryan Carter's career, he has faced doubters and people questioning his ability. Although many would say he is undersized, Carter has worked even harder to prove the naysayers wrong.

"I'm not a big, tall guy, so I've just always felt like if I could just bring some physicality and bring some effort, some toughness, then the rest will take care of itself," Carter told the Post and Courier. "I definitely heard it — heard a lot that I wasn't going to be able to (play elite college football) because of my height and things of that nature. But I just try to come out with a chip on my shoulder."

When Carter did not get an invitation to the 2018 NFL Combine, he knew he had to prove the doubters wrong yet again. At Clemson's Pro Day, he did just that. In front of pro scouts, the corner felt proud of his results. He says that his main source of motivation as a player is being undervalued and he looks to continue to prove doubters wrong at the next level.

PERSONAL

Carter earned his degree from Clemson in sociology. He has a sister, Heather, and brother, Justyn. In his free time he enjoys spending time outdoors.

85 TE CHARLES CLAY

6-3 255 8TH YEAR

FEBRUARY 13, 1989 (AGE 29)

LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS

LITTLE ROCK CENTRAL HS

TULSA

ACQUIRED 2015

Acquired by the Bills via restricted free agency on March 19, 2015.

SHOUTOUTS

- Clay is the only tight end in Bills history to record three consecutive 500+ yard receiving seasons. Clay recorded 51 catches for 528 yards in 2015 during his first season with the Bills, 57 catches for 552 yards in 2016 and 49 catches for 558 yards in 2017.
- In 2016, Clay racked up 57 catches. That total ranks as the second most by a Bills tight end in an individual season in team history. He trails only Pete Metzelaar's 68 catches in 1993.
- Clay accumulated 558 receiving yards in 2017, which ranked as the most by any of the Bills pass catching options.
- At home in 2015, snagged the game winning touchdown on a 40 yard reception against the Houston Texans. The catch came with 1:53 left in the fourth quarter and gave the Bills a 27-21 lead that was later extended to a 30-21 lead and a Bills W.
- Clay has a rushing touchdown to his name, as he took the ball 11 yards for a score in a game against the Colts in 2013.

CHARLES CLAY came to the Buffalo Bills in 2015 via the transition tag after playing four seasons (2011-14) with the Miami Dolphins. Clay was drafted by the Dolphins in the sixth round of the 2011 Draft out of the University of Tulsa, where he spent four years playing both running back and full back for the Golden Hurricanes.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A PRO'S PRO

Heading into an eighth NFL season, Clay looks for every edge he can get. As he profiled to Vic Carucci of the Buffalo News, Clay is now meticulous about his diet.

After a failed attempt at going vegan, Clay has adopted a diet based around plant-based foods, avoiding sugar and primarily chicken or fish for a protein source. Clay admits the focus on nutrition took longer than he'd like, but is now focused on making sure younger players realize the value.

"It took me awhile to realize how big of a role food played in the way your body feels and things like that...You get young guys who come in here, you try to tell them, 'Man, you shouldn't be eating that.' They're like, 'Yeah, whatever.' I had guys early on tell me that it was something that I had to kind of try to experiment with," Clay told the Buffalo News.

PERSONAL

Charles and his wife, Tenia, have a daughter named CharliRose. Charles is the son of Charles and Jerrilyn. His father, Charles, played football at Arkansas (1975-78). Charles attended Central High School in Little Rock, Ark., where he lettered as a tailback and safety.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

GOING CAMPING

Charles makes it a point to head home annually to his alma mater Little Rock Central High School to hold "Charles Clay Youth Football ProCamp." His 2018 camp, which was held May 12, included more than 250 boys & girls in the Little Rock area. "Being able to interact with who come from the same area as me...it is a good time to go out there and teach kids things I have learned about football and about life," said Clay.

FINDING WAYS TO IMPROVE

In an effort to find new ways to improve, one training method Charles has taken up is hot yoga. Hot yoga, also known as Bikram yoga, involves performing 90 minutes of yoga in a room kept between 90-108 degrees with the intention of helping stretch and tone muscles. In addition to hot yoga, Clay has even spent time working on his boxing skills in order to improve his hand speed which helps in both blocking and breaking free off of the line of scrimmage.

LONG BEACH, CALIFORNIA

LONG BEACH POLYTECHNIC

UTAH

ACQUIRED 2018

Came to the Bills via free agency on March 29, 2018.

SHOUTOUTS

- Clay led the Ravens with an average of 10.6 yards per punt return on 23 returns for 244 yards and one touchdown in 2015.
- Returned a punt return 60 yards for a touchdown for the Panthers in 2017.
- While at Utah, he led the Pac-12 in punt return average (15.0 yards) and was fourth in kickoff return average (24.9 yards).
- While at Mt. San Antonio College, Clay led the team in punt returns in 2013 with 17 for 245 yards (14.4 average) and one TD while averaging a team-best 184.8 all-purpose yards per game in 2013.
- Was named a First Team All-American in 2014 as a returner at Utah.
- Has two career NFL return touchdowns.
- Has 42 career punt returns for 393 yards.
- Totaled 17 career kick returns for 395 yards.

KAELIN CLAY came back to the Bills in 2018 after spending time with the Carolina Panthers (2017), Buffalo Bills (2017), Baltimore Ravens (2015-16), Detroit Lions (2015) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2015). Clay originally entered the NFL as a 6th round pick (184th overall) in 2015 of the Buccaneers.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

LONG BEACH POLY

Kaelin Clay comes from a high school that continues to generate NFL talents. Long Beach Polytechnic Institute has maintained a successful football program and has produced more NFL players than any other high school in the nation, sending over 60 players throughout school history.

Poly has produced the likes of DeSean Jackson, Winston Justice, Willie McGinest, Juju Smith-Schuster, and Jayon Brown. The team is currently coached by former NFL linebacker Antonio Pierce.

Clay did more than just play football at Poly. He graduated from high school with honors and made the Dean's List twice, on top of finishing third in the California state track in field championships in the 100-meter dash and sixth in the 200-meter event.

His speed was put to good use while at Utah where he averaged 15 yards per return.

PERSONAL

Kaelin is the son of Rodney Clay and Joi King and has one brother and two sisters. Before attending Utah, Clay spent time developing his skill at Mt. San Antonio Junior College. His cousin, Randall Goforth, plays for the Philadelphia Eagles. First name is pronounced kay-lin.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

THE SCIENTIST

Clay says that his dream job outside of football is to be a forensic scientist. He earned his degree in criminal justice with an emphasis in forensics, but has been fascinated with the field long before entering college. His mom is a nurse, which peaked his interest at a young age and fueled him towards the field, but the love really grew when he found his way into the refrigerator of a hospital. He was fascinated with the corpses and has stayed hooked on the field ever since.

FAMILY MAN

Clay says that his proudest achievement outside of football is the birth of his daughter, Kennedy. She was born in October of 2017. When she was just seven weeks old, Clay made a promise to her while facetimeing before a game. He ended the conversation letting Kennedy know that he would get a touchdown just for her. During the game, Clay had a 60-yard punt return for a touchdown, earning his second-ever career touchdown. Panthers head coach Ron Rivera gave Clay the game ball, which he then passed on to his new daughter.

FIRST-AND-10

Now in his 2nd season in Buffalo, JASON CROOM was signed by the Bills as an undrafted free agent in 2017 and finished his rookie campaign on the practice squad. A former wide receiver in college, Croom switched to tight end as a senior.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BLESSING IN DISGUISE

Croom had spent his entire career playing wide receiver until surgery to repair his patellar tendon in 2014 gave him an idea. During his rehabilitation, he started thinking about what it would be like to play tight end. So he approached his position coach and then Head Coach Butch Davis, who both supported him. He ended up becoming the Volunteers starting tight end in 2016 and is now in competition for a NFL roster spot. "It's a constant learning process," said Croom.

MEMORABLE MOMENT

First attended a NFL game with his grandfather on Thanksgiving day in 2005 when Atlanta visited Detroit. "I had just signed up for football that year and going to that game gave me a good picture of what I wanted to strive for in life," recalled Croom.

CARTOON CONNOISSEUR

During his spare time, Croom enjoys watching cartoons. His top three cartoons of all-time (in order): Bob's Burgers, Family Guy and SpongeBob SquarePants.

PERSONAL

The son of Karen Croom-Terry, an accountant, and Terrence Terry, Jr., a mechanic. Has a Basenji dog named Xena. Graduated with a degree in sociology and a minor in African studies. Lists bowling as one of his hobbies.

FIRST-AND-10

TYLER DAVIS leaves Penn State (2014-17) after a four year collegiate career with the Nittany Lions. An Illinois native, Davis made 39 field goals in his collegiate career and totaled 261 points. He transferred to Penn State in 2014 after playing soccer at Bradley University in 2013.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

NEW SPORT

Davis never played football in high school, but he still has found his way to the NFL.

After playing soccer during his freshman year at Bradley University, Davis wanted to try something new. After being blocked from transferring from soccer by his coach, Davis decided to check out football.

After winning a kicking camp that he went to for fun, Davis was determined to find a walk-on position. He spent all of his time making videos of himself kicking footballs on an open field and sending them off to coaches.

Charles Huff, the Penn State special teams coordinator, liked what he saw and invited Davis to come visit campus. They got along so well that Davis was offered a walk-on spot that he eventually turned in to a record-breaking career with the Nittany Lions.

PERSONAL

Born September 29, 1994 in St. Charles, Illinois, Tyler is the son of Tim and Sharon Davis. He has one brother, Joe. He studied economics and graduated from Pennsylvania State University.

SHOUTOUTS

- Spent six seasons in Indianapolis (2012-2017) and during that time, led the team in both interceptions (13) and passes defended (65).
- En route to Pro Bowl honors in 2015, finished the season with 48 combined tackles (38 solo), 16 pass deflections, and four interceptions in 16 games and 16 starts.
- In 2014, earned his first Pro Bowl nod after recording 42 combined tackles (35 solo), a career-high 18 pass deflections, and four interceptions in 15 games and 15 starts. Also helped lead the Colts to a berth in the AFC Championship game.
- Has displayed his ball hawk abilities by matching his career-high of four interceptions in four seasons (2009, 2011, 2014 and 2015). In 2014, also recorded a career-high 18 passes defended.

VONTAE DAVIS arrives in Buffalo in 2018 entering his 10th NFL season. A two-time Pro Bowler (2014, 2015), Davis originally entered the NFL in 2009 with the Miami Dolphins as a first round pick (25th overall). He spent the first three seasons of his career in Miami before being traded to the Indianapolis Colts in 2012.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A CLOSE CAUSE

Foster care adoption and the charity Hands of Hope has been an important cause for Vontae throughout his career. He has held a number of different fundraising efforts for kids who are in foster care, including pledging money to Hands of Hope for every tackle he made during the 2017 season. The story behind why kids in foster care is such an important cause for Vontae ties back to the role his grandmother played in his upbringing and helping him avoid ending up in foster care.

"I am grateful for my grandmother for the love and support she gave me," said Davis. "I am not sure where I would have been without my family, which is one of the reasons I am so supportive of permanent families for youth in foster care. I think we all deserve a family."

Davis' goodwill is still enduring in Indianapolis and he now hopes to make a similar impact in Buffalo.

PERSONAL

Born May 27, 1988 in Washington D.C., Davis was raised by his grandmother, Adaline. Davis married his longtime girlfriend Megan Harpe in 2015. Davis' brother, Vernon, plays tight end for the Washington Redskins.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

PUMPKIN CARVING CONTEST

Davis married his longtime girlfriend Megan Harpe in 2015. While the couple both has ties to the University of Illinois, they met at a friend's birthday party in Washington D.C.

When Davis realized he was ready to pop the big question he challenged Megan to a pumpkin carving contest. Davis says after he carved into his pumpkin "Marry Me?" there was no question who had won the contest. The couple went on to be married in St. Regis Bahia Beach in Rio Grande, Puerto Rico.

WORLD TRAVELER

Off the field, Davis is an avid world traveler. Shown above this past offseason in Vietnam, Davis has been to five of the seven continents. Some of his favorite locations include: Mykonos in Greece (which was his honeymoon), Thailand, Cape Town in South Africa, and Pyongyang in Vietnam.

"During the season we'll map out where we want to go next... When we travel we like to do everything. We never want to come home and think we missed anything," said Davis.

73 T DION DAWKINS

6-5 320 2ND YEAR

RAHWAY, NEW JERSEY

RAHWAY HIGH SCHOOL

TEMPLE

ACQUIRED 2017

Drafted by the Bills in the second round (63rd overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

SHOUTOUTS

- During his first season with the Bills, Dion appeared in all 16 games while starting 11. He appeared in 74% of all of the team's snaps during his rookie campaign.
- Starting the majority of the season for the Bills at left tackle, helped pave the way for RB LeSean McCoy to finish fourth in the NFL with 1,138 rushing yards. Behind Dawkins, McCoy tallied the sixth 1,000 yard season of his nine-year career.
- Started at left tackle in the Bills first playoff game since 1999.
- As a true freshman at Temple in 2013, Dion became one of just four freshmen to start at left tackle for their school. Pittsburgh's Dorian Johnson, Virginia Tech's Jonathan McLaughlin and Ole Miss' Laremy Tunsil were the only other players to accomplish the feat.
- Was named 2016 First Team All-AAC (Phil Steele, AAC) during his final season with the Temple Owls.

FIRST-AND-10

DION DAWKINS finished his first season playing in all 16 games with the Bills after being drafted by the team in the second round out of Temple. While at Temple, Dawkins dressed for 44 career games, starting 41. Dawkins was named a First Team All-AAC selection after his senior year in 2016.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BIG MAN, BIG SWAG

Dawkins has set out to prove during his career that it is not just skill position players who can bring some personality to the game.

The self-proclaimed snow man, Dawkins began frequently using the word snow in prep school to help display his oversized personality.

"'Snow' is just like you already know but it's just more swag for big guys because big guys have to do different things to get noticed," said Dawkins.

Dawkins path to this point has been a unique ride. Coming out of Hargrave Military Academy in 2012/13 Dawkins only had two FBS offers: from Temple and Cincinnati.

Despite the lack of interest, Dawkins college career culminated in him being the first Temple offensive lineman drafted since 2003 (G Dave Yovanovits, NYJ-7th round, 237th overall).

PERSONAL

Born April 26, 1994 in Rahway, New Jersey, Dion is the son of Eric and Lisa Dawkins. Dion graduated from Temple with a degree in criminal justice.

MY CAUSE, MY CLEATS

Dawkins headed to John R. Oshei Children's Hospital prior to the Bills Week 13 matchup and asked pediatric cancer patients to help design the cleats he would wear versus the Patriots. Dawkins cleats against the Patriots then displayed the artwork of the patients Dawkins visited.

"We'll definitely have a bigger chip on our shoulder playing, because we're not only playing for the Bills, but we'll be playing for all these kids here," Dawkins told the Associated Press.

PAYING TRIBUTE

Dawkins and Ryan Gray traveled Washington, D.C. this offseason with 50 veterans to pay tribute to the men and women who have given the ultimate sacrifice while serving our country.

"I have family that is in the service," said Dawkins. "My sister's husband is in the service, all my uncles were and my grandfather was... (The vets) all were huge Bills fans. They wanted pictures just as much as we wanted pictures with them."

TRACK & 'FOOTBALL' FIELD

Setting the national record in the discus throw (67.44 m) at the Isle of Man and competing at a high level in other international meets was not enough for de Beer. After being recruited by Arizona for track and field, he insisted on walking on to Arizona's football team. "I would make that choice again. I love playing football. I never looked back," said de Beer.

REAL-LIFE ADJUSTMENT

Not only did de Beer have to learn the game of football over the course of his college career, he had to adapt to a new culture living in the United States. "It can be very lonely at times not being with your people and in the culture you grew up in," he said. De Beer now finds himself immersed in American culture. He enjoys "smacking the crap out of the ball" at Top Golf, reading, Netflix, and catching up on Seinfeld episodes on Hulu.

PERSONAL

Favorite holiday?

Christmas

Do you have a hidden talent?

Can cook

Favorite moment as a Buffalo Bill?

The snow game during the 2017 season versus the Colts

Favorite food?

Haitian rice and peas, fried plantains, and chicken

FIRST-AND-10

VLADIMIR DUCASSE arrived at the Bills after campaigns with the New York Jets, Minnesota Vikings, Chicago Bears and Baltimore Ravens over the course of his NFL career. Ducasse was originally drafted by the New York Jets in the second round of the 2010 NFL Draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD' FROM HAITI TO USA

When it comes to the sport of football, Vlad Ducasse had a late start. Born in Haiti, Vlad spent the first 14 years of his life in his home country. Then, his father, Delinois, sent Vlad and his brother MacArthur to Stamford, Connecticut, in order to pursue better educational opportunities.

Vlad began his football career at Stamford High School when other students encouraged him to try the sport due to his size.

"Once I got the helmet and pads on and started hitting people, I started to like it a lot," said Ducasse.

Once he began, he never looked back. Ducasse played on both the offensive and defensive lines and went on to earn a football scholarship to the University of Massachusetts-Amherst, later becoming a Division I-AA All-American.

PERSONAL

The son of Delinois and Bernadette Ducasse, Vladimir was born in Haiti. He is married to Tatiana Valdes and they have a son named Falsher. While at the University of Massachusetts, Ducasse majored in African American studies.

FIRST-AND-10

A 7th round draft pick of the Packers in 2017, MALACHI DUPRE is entering his 2nd season in Buffalo after spending the majority of his rookie season on the Bills practice squad. He was promoted to the active roster prior to the regular season finale. Dupre finished his career at LSU with 98 catches, 1,609 yards and 14 TDs.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BOOK OF MALACHI

Nicknamed Chi and High Fly, Dupre has a unique story of how he received his first name. "My mom swore to everyone I was going to be a girl when she was pregnant with me. She picked the name Mariah for me. So when I was born, she named me Malachi instead! It's the name of a book in the Bible."

GARAGE WORKOUTS

Along with other NFL players, Dupre works out under the tutelage of Colt Colletti, an alumnus of his high school. "His workouts are very unconventional. We work out in his garage at his house. We bench press with a PVC pipe. We squat with different bars and walk with them. We sometimes pull trucks with that squat bar."

NAME DROPPING

Played high school football with linebacker Duke Riley (Falcons) and linebacker Kenny Young (Ravens). He was also a neighbor of former NY Giants and Cincinnati Reds draft pick Chad Jones, who was a two sport star at LSU.

PERSONAL

The son of Michael, who owns a trucking company, and Roz, an interior designer. Has two brothers, Matt and Vernon. Once worked in the warehouse at Café du Monde in New Orleans and helped make the famous Beignet mix.

Most prized possession?

The Bible

FIRST-AND-10

A massive and cerebral linebacker raised in an athletic family, TREMAINE EDMUNDS was the Bills second of two first round draft picks in 2018. Buffalo traded up six spots in the first round to select Edmunds, who joined his brother, Terrell (27th pick by Pittsburgh), in becoming the first brothers in NFL history to be selected in the first round of the same draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FOOTBALL IS FAMILY

Edmunds is no stranger to what it takes to play in the NFL. His father, Ferrell Edmunds, was a two-time Pro Bowl tight end with Miami and Seattle. His oldest brother, Trey, is a running back for the Saints and middle brother, Terrell, was drafted as a safety by the Steelers in 2018. The three brothers were teammates at Virginia Tech in 2016.

DON'T FORGET MOM

Tremaine is quick to point out the benefits of the track workouts he still does with his mother, Felecia, who was a standout hurdler at Southern Illinois. "Her work outs with me on the track are for real. Trust me, they are no joke." Tremaine also credits his grandmother, Mary Morris, and his godbrother and former youth football coach, Keith Lampkin, for their guidance.

SKETCHY HOBBY

One of his off-field interests is drawing. "In high school, I would sketch cartoon characters for fun and became pretty good at it. I ended up taking some art classes and enjoyed it. It's therapeutic."

PERSONAL

Studied communications at Virginia Tech. Growing up in a household with several foster children, he would one day like to support charitable causes in that realm.

Signed with the Bills as a free agent in the 2018 offseason.

SHOUTOUTS

- Became the first player from Marist to ever be drafted by an NFL team.
- In a 2014 match-up versus the Vikings, he blocked a punt with 41 seconds remaining that subsequently went out of the end zone to help seal a 37-35 victory for the Dolphins.
- Was named the Pioneer Football League Defensive Player of the Year during his senior year at Marist after setting the school's single-season record with 13 sacks.
- Participated in the University at Buffalo's 2014 pro day. UB's pro day is held annually in the ADPRO Sports Fieldhouse.

THE STAMPEDE

First sports jersey you owned?

Most prized possession?

Conference championship ring, which marked Marist's first-ever championship

FIRST-AND-10

TERRENCE FEDE comes to the Bills after spending the first four seasons of his NFL career with the Miami Dolphins (2014-17). FeDE originally entered the NFL in 2014 as a seventh round pick (234th overall) of the Dolphins.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BUFFALO VIA HAITI

Born in the United States, FeDE has close ties to Haiti as both of his parents are of Haitian descent.

"My whole family is Haitian," FeDE told the Sun Sentinel in 2014. "It's what I've grown up around. It's what I am."

After the devastating earthquake in January 2010, FeDE went to Haiti to visit family.

"My visit there mostly consisted of seeing sights, seeing family, and seeing how lifestyles are different," he said. "It's totally different. It's a hustle. Everybody is grinding over there to find something to do. It's just our culture."

FeDE returned to Haiti in 2016, when he participated in the Dolphins' Hurricane Matthew relief efforts by flying to Haiti to distribute food, water and hygienic kits to those affected by the storm.

PERSONAL

The son of Jean and Marise FeDE, Terrence was born in Nyack, NY on November 19, 1991. In high school he played basketball in addition to football and earned four letters in each sport. He graduated from Marist with a degree in business/marketing. His last name is pronounced fuh-DAY.

FIRST-AND-10

REID FERGUSON came to the Bills in 2016 after a four-year career at LSU, but appeared in his first action with the Bills during the 2017 season when he took over the starting long-snapper duties.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FIGHT FOR HIS FAMILY

Ferguson's brother, Blake, was diagnosed as a Type 1 diabetic in 2011 at the age of 13. Since then, it has been a family mission to raise awareness and funds to fight diabetes.

During the 2017 offseason, Reid joined his brother and the American Diabetes Association in taking a trip to Capitol Hill to meet with lawmakers in an effort to raise awareness.

"The experience I had at Call to Congress with the American Diabetes Association was very eye-opening," Reid told The Buffalo News. "To be able to go to the Hill and continue the talks to get more funding for diabetes research was incredible."

"My group from Louisiana met with both Louisiana senators and also one senator from North Carolina. We got the chance to ask them for more research funding as well as more funding for the National Diabetes Prevention Program."

PERSONAL

Born March 24, 1994 in Buford, Georgia, Reid is the son of Kevin and Tracy Ferguson. Reid graduated from LSU after majoring in sports administration and criminology.

FIRST-AND-10

KEITH FORD leaves Texas A&M after a two-year stint with the Aggies in 2016 and 2017. Prior to arriving in Buffalo, Ford played for Oklahoma in 2013 and 2014. He was signed by the Bills as a rookie free agent in 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

MILITARY TIES

Keith Ford's childhood was different than most - he lived in Okinawa, Japan for nearly eight years. Ford's father was in the Marines, which caused the family to move to several different places throughout Keith's life. His longest tenure was spent in Japan, where Ford learned about the culture and focused on learning about different war artifacts and learning how to speak the language. Although his home base is now in Houston, he can still speak some Japanese.

BIGGEST MENTOR

Ford says his high school head coach, Gene Johnson, is his main source of motivation as a player. Johnson convinced Ford to start football in his freshman year of high school as a means to get to college and get his degree. Beyond that, Johnson taught Ford that there is more to life than football and that he should be the best he can off the field and do his best to make a positive impact in this world. After Ford played in the Under Armour All-American game, he signed his helmet and gave it to Johnson and it still hangs in his office.

FIRST-AND-10

ROBERT FOSTER leaves Alabama (2013-17) after a five year collegiate career with the Tide. A Pennsylvania native, Foster totaled 29 receptions for 345 yards and three touchdowns during his collegiate career.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

TURNING POINT

On June 23, 2011, Foster's friend, Darrell Turner, was shot and killed while they were in Durham, North Carolina with their 7-on-7 football team.

The group was on their way down to Florida and was at a restaurant when an argument occurred with a stranger who then pulled out a gun.

Turner was killed and Foster, who was next to him, says a bullet narrowly missed his own head.

The trauma from that night narrowed Foster's focus and he threw himself in to working out for football to keep his mind off of it.

"I felt like I was covered ... through the blessing of God," Foster told ESPN. "It could have been anyone."

It wasn't the only time Foster was seemingly given a second chance at life because he was also hit by a car while on his dirt bike in 2017 and had to receive 27 stitches in his back.

PERSONAL

Born May 7, 1994 in Monaca, Pennsylvania, Robert is the son of Robert Foster II and Sherrice Clements. Foster has four older brothers. He studied health communications and graduated from the University of Alabama.

Gaines played in 51 games during his four years at Rice, going on to establish the Owls school record for passes defended with 38.

MILITARY ROOTS

Phillip Gaines has a special connection to the NFL's Salute to Service cause, as he grew up in a military home.

Gaines' parents are U.S. Air Force veterans and he was born on the Hanscom Air Base in Massachusetts. Growing up, he moved from base to base, living in Massachusetts, Italy and San Antonio.

"I thought the coolest thing about being around the military was getting to travel and see different places," Gaines said. "I was born on the East coast, moved to Italy, and then moved to Texas. I got to see a lot before some people got to move out their state."

While Gaines has described himself as someone who is chill and likes to lay low, his military upbringing allowed him to develop into a quiet leader and have confidence in his abilities.

PERSONAL

Phillip is the son of Master Sgt. Bill Gaines and Senior Master Sgt. Susan McFarland. He has one older brother, William. While at Rice, Gaines majored in economics. He played at Rice from 2009-2013 before leaving for the NFL.

Groy's father, Doug, tragically passed away in 2015 in a snowmobile accident. Groy, who credits his dad as the biggest influence in his career, spends most of his time away from the football field exploring the outdoors—a hobby that he says his dad imparted on him.

"I definitely want to make him proud. I know he's looking over us and watching everything we do. I definitely want to show him how hard I'm working, show him what I'm doing and make sure I have no regrets because I know he would want me to have none," Groy said.

Groy says not a day goes by that he does not think of his father. However, Groy now has an opportunity to be a father of his own. On May 27, 2018, Groy's daughter Marlee Lynn Groy was born.

FIRST-AND-10

RICKEY HATLEY entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2017 with Houston. After being released by the Texans at the end of training camp, the University of Missouri product spent two different stints on Kansas City's practice squad before signing with the Bills practice squad on December 23. Three days later, he was promoted to the active roster and saw action in the season finale and playoff game.

HUMBLE BEGINNING

Grew up in a hometown of 200 people in Douglassville, TX. "We had one store (Mike's Grocery Store), a fire department and a post office. That's about it," said Hatley, who became the first member of his family to graduate from college. Hatley began playing football at the age of five in a flag football league. "I remember hating it. I was ready for contact."

MUSICAL TALENT

Hatley enjoys playing the drums in his spare time. "I grew up playing the drums in my church [Walker Chapel in Douglassville, TX]. I had no lessons at all. I still play and I still got it," said Hatley.

PERSONAL

SHOUTOUTS

- In 133 career games, Hauschka has made 220 field goals from 252 attempts, with his percentage of field goals made at 87.3%.
- Recorded a 56-yard field goal last season with the Bills, his longest since he made a 58-yard with the Seahawks in 2014.
- Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week during Week 3 and Week 4 of the 2017 season.
- Over the course of his career, Hauschka has accounted for 960 total kicking points.
- Was the first kicker in NFL history with consecutive games with multiple 53-plus yard field goals.
- Holds the NFL record for most consecutive field goals made from 50 yards or further at 13.
- Made a career high five field goals in 2011 versus Baltimore while with the Seahawks.
- Has played in every game for each of the past seven seasons and won Super Bowl XLVIII with Seattle.

FIRST-AND-10

STEPHEN HAUSCHKA joined the Buffalo Bills after spending time with six NFL teams, most recently with the Seattle Seahawks. Hauschka entered the league when he signed as an undrafted free agent with the Minnesota Vikings in 2008. Before joining the league, Hauschka played his collegiate career at Middlebury College and North Carolina State University.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

LATE TO THE GAME

Stephen Hauschka was 19-years old before he took his first snap on the football field. Hauschka joined the football team at Middlebury College his sophomore year after playing soccer and lacrosse earlier in his career. He set school records for field goals made in a season and a career.

He then transferred to North Carolina State for his final year of eligibility, where he led the ACC with an 88.9 field goal percentage. In 2008, he signed with the Minnesota Vikings as an undrafted free agent. He became the first NFL player produced by Middlebury since 1926. Since then, Hauschka has played for six different NFL teams, acquiring a Super Bowl win with the Seattle Seahawks during that time.

PERSONAL

Stephen Hauschka is married to his wife Lindsey, and the two of them are parents to son Jones. They have two dogs: a pug chihuahua and an Australian Shepard poodle mix. Hauschka graduated with a degree in Neuroscience from Middlebury College, where he also played soccer and lacrosse.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A DIFFERENT CAREER

Stephen Hauschka's football career almost never materialized. After college, he had a choice to make: attend dental school or continue to pursue a career in football. Going into dentistry would have made sense, as his mother Barbara is a dentist. Though accepted into dental school, he chose the latter.

"I applied to dental school and I had to decide whether to try to keep playing football or go to dental school. I obviously chose football."

AMBITION IN THE FAMILY

Hauschka and his wife, Lindsey, met while they were both attending Middlebury College. While Hauschka excelled on the field, he was accomplished off the field as well, completing a degree in Neuroscience. Lindsey would complete her degree at the same time, before heading off to law school at Boston College. The two know the importance of staying in school and have found great success in their pursuits. "He did a program through the NFL at Harvard Business School and he really enjoyed it."

18 WR ANDRE HOLMES

HOFFMAN ESTATES, ILLINOIS

JAMES B. CONANT HS

HILLSDALE

ACQUIRED 2017

Signed as a free agent by the Bills on March 18, 2017.

SHOUTOUTS

- Posted three touchdown catches for the Bills in 2017.
- Set career highs with the Raiders in 2014 with 47 catches, 693 yards and four touchdowns.
- Grabbed a career-long, 77-yard touchdown pass from Derek Carr vs. San Diego in 2014.
- Caught a touchdown pass in his only career playoff game at Houston (1/7/17). It was a 8-yard catch from Connor Cook.
- Inducted into the Hillsdale College Athletic Hall of Fame in 2018.
- In his final season at Hillsdale in 2010, set single-season school records for receptions (104), and receiving yards (1,368), and caught 11 touchdown passes.

FIRST-AND-10

ANDRE HOLMES is in his second year in Buffalo and his 7th in the NFL after signing a three-year contract with the Bills in 2017. Holmes provides size and depth at the wide receiver position and on special teams. He entered the NFL as undrafted free agent with the Vikings from Division II Hillsdale College. After stints with Minnesota, Dallas and New England early in his career, Holmes finally made his mark in Oakland, playing four seasons with the Raiders (2013-16).

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

UNLIKELY ROUTE

Holmes is an example of perseverance. He did not play much football in high school. Division II Hillsdale was the only school to offer him a scholarship. In the NFLPA Bowl game in 2011, he "didn't know how to get off press coverage and got destroyed. Going against Division I athletes was a new experience." It all worked out well.

SPECIAL MENTALITY

It is no accident Holmes is one of the most productive special teamers on the team. "I take a lot of pride on playing special teams. That's how I got on the field early in my career. A special teams play starts every series. It sets the tone."

UNIQUE EYE TRAINING

Uses Senaptec Strobe goggles to "recalibrate" his eyes before each game.

PERSONAL

He and his wife, Diana, have two sons, Micah and Kai. The son of Kevin and Mary Holmes. His father played 13 years of professional basketball in Europe. Has two brothers and two sisters. Earned a degree in physical education.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

LATE BLOOMER

Holmes (pictured above with other inductees in the Hillsdale College Hall of Fame) started playing football as a 170 pounder in high school. "I have always felt I was behind the curve in sports growing up. Whether I was too slow, too skinny, or played at a small college, I always felt I had something to prove. And the fear of failure always motivated me."

He heeded the advice from his college offensive coordinator Barry Fagan. "There was a moment after my redshirt freshman year, where I had to fill out a form listing goals. I left the part about long-term goals empty and my coach said if I stay committed to the weight room and the classroom, anything is possible. And he was always on me. He was on me every part of practice. He worked me hard."

TURNING POINT

Barely played on his high school varsity team until his senior. In fact, he thought about giving up football altogether and play soccer. He continued to play as a senior and after a 0-4 start, he became very frustrated again playing wide receiver in an offense that was geared toward running.

"My father told me after that fourth game that I wasn't doing enough to help the team. And I thought, we are not throwing the ball. How can I be more helpful? My father talked about blocking better. And the next game, I took that advice to heart. My blocks sprung two long touchdown runs, I made two tackles on special teams and we won the game. That was a turning point for me and I ended up getting a college scholarship."

SUGAR LAND, TEXAS

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN HS

TCU

TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY

ACQUIRED 2013

Acquired by the Bills via a trade with the Indianapolis Colts in 2013.

SHOUTOUTS

- Since joining the Bills in 2013, Hughes leads all Buffalo pass rushers with 35 sacks.
- Hughes started his Bills career on a tear, piling up back-to-back double digit sacks seasons in 2013 and 2014. Hughes is one of just four pass rushers in franchise history to record consecutive double digit sack seasons, joining: Bruce Smith (1986-1990, 1992-1998), Aaron Schobel (2005-2006) and Mario Williams (2012-2014).
- Hughes tied with DE Shaq Lawson for the Bills 2018 sack lead with four. Hughes also ranked second on the Bills with 11 QB hits, trailing LB Lorenzo Alexander (15).
- Hughes ranked second on the Bills in sacks in 2016 after racking up six quarterback takedowns.
- Hughes showed that his abilities aren't limited to the football field in 2017, as he won LeSean McCoy's Shades of Greatness home run derby fundraiser. Hughes hit five dingers in the final round to be named champion.

FIRST-AND-10

JERRY HUGHES is entering his sixth season with the Bills in 2018. Acquired via trade by the Bills from the Indianapolis Colts in 2013, Hughes originally entered the NFL as a first round draft choice (31st overall) of the Colts out of TCU. A dynamic pass rusher, Hughes has registered a team-high 35 sacks since 2013.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

HELLO HOUSTON

A native of the Houston-area, Hughes stepped up in a big way following Hurricane Harvey in 2017.

Via his Instagram, Hughes announced: Fellow Houstonians and Bills Mafia: What is happening in my home city of Houston is completely devastating and heart wrenching. Watching this crisis from so far away I feel helpless and I want to do whatever I can to help the victims impacted by this tragedy. I will be donating $50,000 to Mayor Sylvester Turner's Hurricane Harvey Relief Fund. Additionally I will give $5,000 for each sack I record. I hope and pray my teammates, friends, and fans will join me in making a donation as well. Thank you all for your support!

By season's end, Hughes donated a grand total of $70,000 to the recovery efforts.

PERSONAL

Born August 13, 1988 in Sugar Land, Texas Jerry is the son of Jerry Sr. & Pam Hughes. Jerry is married to the former Meghan Robinson and has a son, J.R., and a daughter, Hayden. Jerry graduated from TCU with a major in Communications.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

TEXAS TEA

In 2015, Hughes teamed up with Demi Lovato, Robert Griffin III & Brian Orakpo to introduce Texas Tea. D.B. Miller, Inc., an Austin-based company, which produces the uniquely Texas beverage lines. All Natural Texas Tea® blends organic white, green, and black tea from India and China with the most flavorful of local ingredients – Rio Red Grapefruit, TX wildflower raw honey, Brownsboro blueberries, Fredericksburg peaches, Poteet strawberries, Dove Creek mint, Pecos cantaloupes, & Imperial Pure Cane Sugar from Sugar Land, TX.

A SPECIAL GUEST

Hughes surprised his wife Meghan during their wedding in 2015 by inviting Grammy Award winning R&B singer-songwriter Anthony Hamilton to sing "Can't Let Go" for the couple's first dance.

Hughes posted the moment on Instagram. The video includes the couple's DJ failing to play the song on several attempts before Hamilton emerges with a live rendition.

FIRST-AND-10

RAMON HUMBER joined the Bills in 2016 after stints with the Indianapolis Colts, New Orleans Saints and New England Patriots. The linebacker came into the league as an undrafted free agent signed by the Colts. He also played five seasons with New Orleans from 2010-15.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

GRADUATION

Humber attended North Dakota State University (NDSU), where he started in 22 of 32 games he played in during his college career. Following his time with NDSU, Humber signed with the Colts as an undrafted free agent in 2010. Now entering his 10th season in the NFL, the seasoned pro recently decided to complete the coursework he needed to get his degree. Diligent and hardworking, Humber was able to balance his football schedule with his studies to earn a Bachelor of University Studies degree from his alma mater during the 2018 offseason.

BILLS CONNECTION

Bills safeties coach Bobby Babich is also an alumni of the North Dakota State. Babich played cornerback, while Humber played linebacker for the Bison. The two overlapped in 2005, during Babich's senior season and Humber's freshman campaign. North Dakota State finished 7-4 in 2005, with a runner-up conference honor, under third-year head coach Craig Bohl.

PERSONAL

Born August 10, 1987 in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Ramon is the son of Ramon and Vernell Humber. Humber and his wife Holli have a daughter, Meila.

PERSONAL

He and his wife, Amanda, were married on July 7, 2018. Son of Pamela Moore and his stepfather Clayton Moore. His brother, Marcus, was a safety at Michigan State. Earned a degree in recreation and sports business.

FIRST-AND-10

MICAH HYDE made the most of his first season in Buffalo, earning his first career Pro Bowl berth and 2nd-team All-Pro honors while posting career highs in tackles (82) and interceptions (5). After spending his first four NFL seasons in Green Bay, Hyde signed a five-year contract with the Bills in 2017 as an unrestricted free agent. He was a 5th round draft choice of the Packers in 2013 and saw action in Green Bay at both safety positions, cornerback, nickel, special teams coverage, kickoff returner and punt returner. Hyde has earned a playoff berth in all five of his NFL seasons.

SHOUTOUTS

- Tied for 5th in the NFL with a career-high five interceptions in 2017.
- He and fellow safety Jordan Poyer combined for 10 interceptions in 2017 - tops among all safety duos in the NFL.
- Hyde's teams are 10-2 when he records an interception, including a 3-1 mark in Buffalo.
- Is one of five safeties in the NFL since 2013 with 12+ INTs and 4+ sacks, joining Reshad Jones, Harrison Smith, Malcolm Jenkins, and Antoine Bethea.
- Tied with Desmond Howard and Will Blackmon for first in Packers history with three career punt returns for a touchdown.
- Became the first defensive back in Packers history (since 1982) to register a sack in each of his first three seasons.
- Earned first-team, all-state honors as a quarterback in high school.

IMAGINE FOR YOUTH FOUNDATION

Took an idea that began as part of a class project in college and started the IMagI Ne for Youth Foundation, an organization that collected sporting goods and donated them to local charities in Iowa. The foundation has continued on with its work in other states. "I believe sports are a gateway to learning how to be successful in life," said Hyde. [imagineforyouth.org]

ALWAYS COUNTED OUT

"I have always been overlooked." And it's something Hyde takes a lot of pride in and it fuels his desire to be the best. Recruited only by Iowa and MAC schools, he committed to Iowa on the last day of the signing period. "When I was a free agent, Buffalo was the only team that was interested. It all keeps me working. I'm never the one to look for pats on the back."

HYDE'S GREEN THUMB

Growing up in a single family home, Hyde was mentored by a family friend, Ken Watson (pictured with Hyde above), who operated a farm in Tiffin, Ohio. Micah worked for Watson at that farm. "He taught me the value of the dollar and what hard work can do for you. I'd wake up early in the morning and do all sorts of jobs like baling straw, moving boulders, and cutting down trees."

It would not be a stretch to drive by Hyde's house now and see him outside gardening, mulching, or planting. "I'm really meticulous about how everything looks outside. I take a great deal of pride in that. Honestly, being so detail-oriented correlates with how I try to live my life as a whole. I learned those skills and other life lessons from working on that farm."

FIRST-AND-10

CHRIS IVORY will be entering his ninth NFL season with the Bills in 2018. Ivory joins the Bills after spending the past two seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2016-17). Ivory has also spent time with the New York Jets (2013-15) and the New Orleans Saints (2010-2012). Ivory originally entered the NFL in 2010 as an undrafted free agent with the Saints out of Tiffin University (2009)/Washington State (2006-08).

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BIG TIME DREAMS

During Chris Ivory's high school playing days, his childhood best friend Trent Williams and Ivory made a pact with each other that they would both make it to the NFL. Ivory and Williams achieved that dream and more, as they are each entering their ninth NFL seasons and have earned Pro Bowl honors along the way.

Despite their NFL success, Ivory and Williams have both made sure to remember their humble beginnings. The duo returns home annually to help host a summer football camp in Longview.

"It's about believing in yourself and just knowing that inside yourself that you have what it takes to get to the next level, but it also takes determination," Ivory said at the camp in 2015. "You've got to be determined, have that willpower and just be mentally tough to continue to push yourself."

PERSONAL

Married to Nikki Ivory and the couple has two children, Nevaeh (heaven spelled backwards) and Nyelle. They also have two dogs, Nina and Nalla.

FIRST-AND-10

JOSH JAMES was signed to the practice squad after time with the Green Bay Packers and Kansas City Chiefs upon entering the league as an undrafted free agent in 2016. Josh played four seasons at Carroll College prior to joining the NFL.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

CARROLL CONNECTION

During his days at Carroll, James was named to the First-Team NAIA All-American team, and earned Frontier All-Conference First-Team honors for both his junior and senior seasons. The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics is usually not known for producing NFL players, but Carroll College has done its job in altering that trend.

"I am excited to carry the Carroll banner into the NFL," James said while entering the NFL.

The Fighting Saints have been home to the James family, where Josh's father, Mike, played 30 years before Josh did. Though they played for the same school, their positions differed.

"He was a defensive lineman there, and he likes to complain about how offensive linemen always cheat."

PERSONAL

Son to Mike and Jennifer James. Has one brother, Matt, who plays football at the University of Washington. Josh studied Civil Engineering while at Carroll College.

FAMILY MOTIVATION

Taron Johnson has never needed to look very far to find the motivation he needed to push himself harder in his athletic pursuits.

Johnson's older sister, Treana, earned All-American honors at BYU and since she was three years older, Taron was always chasing after her accomplishments.

His family motivation goes deeper than just the athletic accomplishments of his sister. Taron uses the loss of his mother at the age of 9 as his main desire to make his family proud. Trina Johnson passed away from breast cancer in 2005.

"It was definitely a shock. It didn't seem real at the time...It was just very weird. It seemed like a dream."

"She's inspirational for sure. She introduced me to the game, and I'm thankful for it," Johnson said recently in an interview with WKBW. "I feel like I play for her."

PERSONAL

Taron (TARE-un) is the son of Baron Johnson. His mother, Trina, passed away from breast cancer in 2005. His sister, Treana, earned All-American honors at BYU as a track and field athlete. Studied Criminal Justice while at Weber State.

FIRST-AND-10

TAIWAN JONES came to Buffalo in 2017 after spending six seasons with the Oakland Raiders, where he was drafted in the fourth round (125th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft. Jones earned PFWA All-AFC honors in 2015 after leading the AFC in kick return yards.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

COMMITMENT TO EDUCATION

Taiwan Jones' biggest obstacle that he had to overcome on the way to success in the NFL wasn't a physical one, but a mental one.

Big-time schools had no difficulty identifying Taiwan as a special talent during his high school days, but a low grade-point average kept him from receiving a scholarship offers from a Division I school. It wasn't until halfway through his senior year of high school that he was diagnosed with the learning disorder dyslexia. This diagnosis allowed him the extra time he needed to get his grades to the level he needed to play at Eastern Washington. Jones' passion for learning continued in 2017 when he attended the NFL Business Academy at the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business.

PERSONAL

Jones has five brothers and one sister. In his spare time, he breeds pit bulls and has two of his own - Tytus and Kookie. He says that his family as a whole is the biggest influence on his career. In his free time, he also enjoys playing paintball and four-wheeling.

FIRST-AND-10

ZAY JONES finished his first season with the Bills with 27 catches for 316 yards and two touchdowns after being drafted in the second round in 2017 following a standout career at East Carolina. A Texas native, Jones set a NCAA FBS record with 399 receptions during his collegiate career.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

THE FAMILY BUSINESS

Jones isn't the first member of his family to make it to the National Football League. His father, Robert, played linebacker from 1992 to 2001 and won three Super Bowls with the Dallas Cowboys. His uncle, Jeff Blake, played quarterback in the NFL from 1992 to 2005 and made the Pro Bowl with the Bengals.

Zay's brother, Cayleb, is currently a wide receiver with the Minnesota Vikings and his younger brother, Levi, is a linebacker at USC. His cousin, Emory Blake, also played in the NFL for the Rams after a productive career at Auburn as a wide receiver.

In addition to his two brothers, Zay has three sisters, Maliah, Priscilla and Ana. Ana is adopted and came to the Jones family from China. Her uplifting presence in Zay's life has led him to be an advocate for adoption and awareness of what it entails.

PERSONAL

Born March 30, 1995 in Dallas, Texas, Zay is the son of Robert and Maneesha Jones. Zay has three sisters, Leah, Priscilla and Ana, in addition to two brothers, Cayleb and Levi. Jones studied Communications and graduated from East Carolina University.

FIRST-AND-10

JEREMY KERLEY joins the Bills after six seasons with the Jets (2011-15, 2017) and one season with the 49ers (2016). He entered the NFL as a fifth round pick of the New York Jets (153rd overall) in 2011.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

MULTI SPORT

When asked what sports he played in high school, Kerley responded, "All of them."

While Kerley has had a tremendous amount of success on the football field, it wasn't always football that he was recognized for. A standout track and field athlete, he qualified for the Texas state finals in the triple jump four times. He won silver medals in both the triple jump and the long jump at the state championships in high school.

Coming out of high school, he was heavily recruited for both baseball and football. Kerley played centerfielder and also pitched for his high school team, receiving scholarship offers to the University of Texas and Stanford for the sport.

Ultimately, after football scholarships offers from Oklahoma and TCU, he chose to pursue a career in football, even though he never dreamt of playing the NFL as a kid.

PERSONAL

The son of Charlotte and Donald Kerley, Jeremy studied Criminal Justice while at TCU. He and his wife Kristal have three children together: Dae'Shone, Y'Manni, and Ma'liyah.

FIRST-AND-10

DEON LACEY was signed by the Buffalo Bills in 2017 after spending training camp with the Miami Dolphins. Lacey spent the previous three years in the Canadian Football League for the Edmonton Eskimos and played four seasons for West Alabama prior to joining the CFL.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

SWEET HOME ALABAMA

Lacey only lettered for two seasons at Hueytown High School in Alabama, but he certainly left his mark in those two seasons. In his senior season, he was named All-State, Super All-Metro, Old Spice Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year while playing for the Golden Gophers. The team did well on the offensive side of the ball as well, with current Tampa Bay Buccaneers QB Jameis Winston under center. Lacey also ran track and set the school record in the 400-meter dash with a time of 52.57.

CFL CHAMPION

Though he didn't join the NFL immediately after college, Lacey suited up for the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League for three seasons, producing a total of 114 defensive tackles, 68 special-team tackles and seven sacks.

He helped lead the team to a 14-4 record and the 2015 Grey Cup Championship in his second CFL season. Lacey finished out that season with 41 total tackles and four forced fumbles.

PERSONAL

Born on July 18, 1990 in Indianapolis, IN, Deon is the son of Tonya Lacey and David Fuller. Deon has three brothers and majored in Physical Education while at West Alabama.

6-3 265 3RD YEAR

JUNE 17, 1994 (AGE 24)

CENTRAL, SOUTH CAROLINA

D.W. DANIEL HIGH SCHOOL

CLEMSON

ACQUIRED 2016

Drafted by the Bills in the first round (19th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

SHOUTOUTS

- Was named first-team All-American by the Associated Press, ESPN.com, AFCA, USA Today and Walter Camp for his standout play as a junior at Clemson in 2015.
- Led the country with 25.5 tackles for a loss in 2015.
- His 12.5 sacks as a junior was tied for the fourth-most in a single season in Clemson school history.
- Was the first Clemson defender since Anthony Simmons (1995-97) with double figure tackles for loss as a freshman, sophomore and junior.
- Lawson was ranked as the No. 1 prep school prospect in the nation by 247Sports.com after he spent a year at Hargrave Military Academy, where he played with Bills T Dion Dawkins.
- Recorded his first career NFL sack in just his second game, taking down Patriots QB Tom Brady in Week 8 of the 2016 season.

FIRST-AND-10

SHAQ LAWSON was drafted by the Bills in the first round of the 2016 Draft after three seasons at Clemson. Lawson helped lead the Tigers to the National Championship game with a Consensus All-American performance in 2015 before joining the Bills, where he has posted 46 tackles and 6.0 sacks in 21 appearances.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

PICK AND ROLL

Lawson contemplated leaving football behind as a freshman to focus on basketball, but joined the varsity team at the last minute. As a sophomore, Lawson was the starting center for the Daniel Lions and he teamed up with Houston Texans WR DeAndre Hopkins to lead the school to their first ever Class AAA state basketball championship. Lawson led the way in the title game with a game-high 25 points.

CLEMSON BOY

Shaq's first job was working in the concessions stands at Clemson games from the Ages of 11 to 14 selling popcorn. During that time, Lawson saw how much the Tigers meant to his local community and he eventually would end up playing in the same place his idols did. As a Tiger, Lawson would go on to be a unanimous All-American and would total 167 tackles, 46.5 tackles for a loss and 20 sacks.

PERSONAL

Born June 17, 1994 in Central, South Carolina, Shaq is the son of Rolitha Oglesby and the late Lawrence Lawson. Lawson studied Parks and Recreation at Clemson University. He has a French Bulldog named Nudy.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

GIVING BACK TO CENTRAL

Lawson credits the majority of his success in football to the formative years he spent in the Central Tigers youth football program. The Tigers are a town recreation program for 6-12 years old to play football and Shaq recently left his mark on the team. Citing an extremely rundown old scoreboard, Lawson donated a brand new one in memory of his late father, Lawrence Lawson, who was very involved in the program. The scoreboard is scheduled to be unveiled during the summer of 2018 and in use for the upcoming season.

FAMILY MAN

The man that Shaq Lawson is today was shaped by a tragedy that happened when he was 15 years old. The car his parents were driving was hit by a drunk driver and his father passed away at the scene. Shaq knew he had to step up and help raise his younger siblings even though he just lost the most influential person in his life. Lawson still makes it a point to visit his father's grave as often as possible and every game, Lawson takes the field with his father's memory in mind, always looking to make him proud and to accomplish all the goals they set together.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'A TRUE UNDERDOG

Coming out of high school, Lee garnished interest from mostly Division II and III schools and ultimately chose to stay close to home when he became a Bulldog.

Khari walked on at Bowie State, a historically black university that was close to his hometown of Baltimore. On top of receiving D-II All-American and All-CIAA First Team honors at Bowie State, Lee was the team's first Offensive MVP during his senior campaign. He produced 34 receptions, 443 yards and a touchdown before declaring for the NFL Draft.

He takes inspiration from another former walk-on and former teammate of his while with the Texans: J.J. Watt. With a chip on his shoulder, Lee knows that he has a lot to prove.

"I don't think anyone who [walks on in college] ... ever loses that chip," Lee told ESPN in 2015. "You have to bring something to the table, do something better than the next player is doing. Walking on, that's what drove me pretty

MARQUAVIUS LEWIS joined the Buffalo Bills in 2017 after playing at the University of South Carolina. Named one of four senior captains during his final season with South Carolina.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

TAKE A CHANCE ON ME

Going from playing at junior college to starting every game in his two seasons at the University of South Carolina, Lewis signed with the Bills as an undrafted free agent in May of 2017. Lewis, a South Carolina native, is not used to a big city.

"That's probably the biggest difference between Buffalo and my hometown. There are a lot more people here, being in a city."

Although he's in unfamiliar territory, he considers Buffalo his home and the place where he earned an opportunity.

"My favorite memory as a Bill was that first day, that first time I walked into the building as an NFL player. Buffalo immediately became home to me because they took a chance on me."

In his first game, a 2017 preseason contest versus the Vikings, Lewis notched three tackles for a loss along with a sack.

PERSONAL

Born and raised in South Carolina, Marquavius is the son of Thelma Belcher, and has two brothers named Mario and Craig. Lewis graduated from the University of South Carolina with a degree in Sociology.

SHOUTOUTS

- Lotulelei has started in 75 of 76 games throughout his five year career.
- Was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week in 2016 after his week 8 performance against Arizona where he set a single-game career high three sacks and a forced fumble.
- Won the Morris Trophy in 2011 while at Utah, which is annually awarded to the PAC-12's best lineman.
- Contributed to a defensive unit that in 2016 finished second in the league with 47 sacks.
- Earned PFWA All-Rookie honors after his 2013 season.
- Member of a Carolina unit that led the league in sacks in 2013.
- Was only the second Utah defensive lineman to ever make the Associated Press All-America first team.

FIRST-AND-10

STAR LOTULELEI signed with the Bills as an unrestricted free agent after playing five seasons with the Carolina Panthers (2013-17). The defensive tackle was drafted by the Panthers in the 1st round (14th overall) of the 2013 NFL draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A NEAR MISS

A first round draft pick in 2013 and one of the prize acquisitions of the 2018 free agent class, it seems hard to believe that Lotulelei nearly never even played football past the high school level.

After graduating from Bingham High School, Lotulelei actually gave up football and took a job working from 9-to-5 at a furniture delivery company. Lotulelei quickly realized that lifestyle was one he wouldn't be satisfied with and enrolled at Snow Junior College.

While he was back on the gridiron, things did not really click for Lotulelei until he met his soon-to-be wife Angelina and the couple had their first daughter, Arilani. Lotulelei credits becoming a father to Arilani with helping him recognize what was important and committing to football.

PERSONAL

Lotulelei (lo-too-leh-lay) is the son of Star and Pesatina Lotulelei and is the oldest of ten children. His brother, Lowell, also played football for Utah. Star and his wife Fuiva have four children. While at Utah, Lotulelei majored in Sociology. He met his wife while at Snow, where she was a volleyball player.

FIRST-AND-10

MIKE LOVE was signed as a rookie free agent by the Bills in 2018 after a four-year career at South Florida. In college, he amassed 9.5 sacks while earning an undergraduate degree in criminology and a master's degree in entrepreneurship.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

MOMMA'S BOY

Love makes it clearly known that his mother is the biggest influence on him and his career to this point. Raising four boys by herself while working as an insurance claims agent, Love noticed and appreciated all that Shalonda Love did for her children.

"She is a wonderful woman," Love said. "She is always on me about my manners. Always made sure I said yes sir, no sir. She also helps me find positives in every negative situation. She has been through a lot and I will do everything I can for her."

LATE BLOOMER

Love did not really commit himself to football until the 9th grade at Countryside High School. He first tried out at wide receiver. Love quit playing football in both the 6th grade and 8th grade.

ROLE MODELS

Enjoys watching film of NFL star pass rushers Khalil Mack and Jadeveon Clowney. "I love their relentlessness."

PERSONAL

The son of Shalonda Love, an insurance claims agent. He has three brothers, Leon, Tone Tone, and Roger. Leon and Tone Tone are currently serving in the US Army. Lettered in football and basketball in high school.

FIRST-AND-10

DEAN MARLOWE enters his first full season with the Bills after being signed to the team's practice squad prior to Week 14 of the 2017 season. Prior to arriving in Buffalo, Marlowe spent the 2015 and 2016 seasons with the Carolina Panthers before being a training camp cut in 2017. Marlowe originally entered the NFL as a UDFA out of James Madison with Carolina.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A KEY RECRUITER

Coming out of James Madison, Marlowe went undrafted but drew plenty of interest from NFL teams. Marlowe estimates about 15 NFL teams tried to sign him. One of the deciding factors in him signing with Carolina? A call from then Panthers defensive coordinator Sean McDermott during the seventh round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

"My agent told me it'd be a great opportunity to learn from a great coordinator (Sean McDermott), great head coach (Ron Rivera) and great defensive backs coach in Coach (Steve) Wilks," Marlowe said at the time. "I saw that they had veterans like Roman Harper that I could learn from and pick up the speed of the game. I'm a smart guy. I know the game and I know it well. I can develop a lot from these guys."

Marlowe warranted the interest from NFL teams after finishing his career at James Madison as a First-Team All-CAA selection.

PERSONAL

Dean is the son of Lisa and Mike Neil. He graduated with a degree in sports and recreation management from James Madison University.

SHOUTOUTS

- Led Alabama to back-to-back BCS National Championships in 2011 and 2012.
- During his three seasons with the Crimson Tide, posted a 36-4 record.
- Has started three of the 11 NFL games he has appeared in thus far in his career, completing 86-of-133 pass attempts for 920 yards, six TDs and two INTs.
- Started the Bengals Wild Card playoff game vs. Pittsburgh in 2015 and went 23-of-41 for 212 yards, 1 TD and 1 INT. McCarron led the Bengals from a 15-0 deficit after three quarters to a 16-15 lead, only to see the Steelers prevail 18-16 on a late field goal.
- As a senior in 2013 at Alabama, was a First-Team All-American and also won the Maxwell Award and the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award.
- McCarron was the runner-up for the 2013 Heisman Trophy, losing out to Florida State QB Jameis Winston.
- His first career completion in college was a 29-yard pass to now Falcons WR Julio Jones.

FIRST-AND-10

AJ McCARRON comes to the Bills after spending the first four seasons of his NFL career with the Cincinnati Bengals (2014-17). McCarron originally entered the NFL in 2014 as a fifth round pick (164th overall) of the Bengals.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A DEFINING EVENT

When AJ was just five years old, he was involved in a serious jet ski accident that initially had doctors thinking he would not make it.

At the time of the accident, AJ was sitting in his father's, Tony, lap with his cousin in the passenger seat. The wake of a marine patrol boat caused them to lose control of the jet ski and send AJ flying face first into a pier.

Doctors originally thought AJ may not make it or would be reduced to a vegetative state, but just months later AJ had fully recovered.

"I'm a huge believer of the man above. He gave me a second chance at life. You never know why you get that, and my mom and dad and I promised each other we would live life to the fullest after that. Not many kids can say they've had a second opportunity at life," said AJ.

PERSONAL

Born September 13, 1990 in Mobile, Alabama, AJ is married to Katherine Webb and the couple has a son, Tripp. The couple also has a Morkie named Mac. The son of Dee Dee Bonner and Anthony McCarron, AJ also has a brother, Corey, who played fullback at Middle Tennessee State. AJ studied health studies and graduated from the University of Alabama.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

CHAMPIONSHIP PEDIGREE

In addition to the two National Championships that McCarron guided the University of Alabama to, he has been a winner on multiple occasions. In his youth, he won a Little League football championship, a city league basketball championship, a middle school football championship and led St. Paul's Episcopal School to the 2007 AHSAA Class 5A state championship alongside Rams S Mark Barron. Of all those titles, McCarron says that his favorite was the National Championship game against LSU in 2012, where he won offensive MVP.

AJIAN SUSHI

After the lasting effect that the University of Alabama community had on AJ during his college years, he knew he couldn't just graduate and not be associated with the town anymore. The perfect opportunity arose when AJ was connected with Pete Zimmer by his Bengals teammate Michael Johnson. The group combined to open A.J. McCarron's, a build-your-own sushi concept. The restaurant has been up and running since the summer of 2017 and the group is now looking in to the possibility of opening more locations across Alabama.

RAY-RAY MCCLLOUD III arrives in Buffalo after spending three seasons at Clemson (2015-17). A Second-Team All-American punt returner in 2017 (Pro Football Focus), McCloud was the 187th selection in the sixth round by the Bills in 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FAMILY FIRST

Ray-Ray McCloud III lists his parents, Raymond McCloud Jr and Lisa McCloud, as his biggest inspirations in his life.

McCloud told the Clemson Athletics website, "My parents are my biggest inspirations. My dad played football at Arkansas, and he has always pushed me in sports and in life. My mom is my best friend. She's my ace, and I can talk to her about anything."

"I put him in flag football leagues with kids who were a year or two years older than him, and he was just doing things that make you say, 'wow,' and making it look easy, and then it became like a habit," Raymond Jr told the Bleacher Report.

McCloud's determination to make it to the NFL was partly because he wanted to reach the level that his dad didn't.

"I want to follow through on what my dad built," he told Clemson. "He's the main reason I developed a passion for the game."

PERSONAL

The son of Raymond Jr and Lisa McCloud. Ray-Ray is the oldest of five siblings, two brothers and two sisters. Majored in Sociology at Clemson. His first name is Raymond, but goes by Ray-Ray.

PERSONAL

Has a son, LeSean, Jr. He is the son of Daphne and Ron McCoy. Has an older brother, LeRon, and a younger brother, Chris Henderson. LeRon was a 7th round draft pick of Arizona in 2005 as a wide receiver. Also has a rottweiler named Henny. Aspires to become a football analyst on television once his playing days are complete.

FIRST-AND-10

LESEAN MCCOY is cementing his position as one of the game's best running backs of all time. Acquired by the Bills in a trade from the Eagles in 2015, McCoy leads the NFL in rushing yards since entering the league as a 2nd round draft choice in 2009. A six-time Pro Bowl selection and a two-time, first-team All-Pro honoree, McCoy is the only player in NFL history with 10,000+ rushing yards, 400+ receptions, 4.5+ yards per carry, and 80+ total TDs. McCoy was the 53rd overall player selected in the 2009 draft by Philadelphia.

SHOUTOUTS

- Since 2010, McCoy leads the NFL with 37 games of 100+ rushing yards. His teams' record in such games? 31-6.
- McCoy scored the most touchdowns this decade (2010-17) with 77 (tied with Rob Gronkowski).
- McCoy leads the NFL in most yards from scrimmage in NFL since 2009 (13,470).
- Tied with Le'Veon Bell for the most games with 150+ yards from scrimmage since 2012 (17).
- Since joining the Bills in 2015, leads the NFL in rushing yards with 3,330.
- In a heavy snowstorm, rushed for a season-high 156 yards (6th most in career), including a game-winning 21-yard touchdown run in overtime vs. Indianapolis (12/10/17).
- Still holds the Eagles franchise records for most rushing yards in a career (6,792), in a season (1,607 in 2013), and in a game (217 vs. Detroit on 12/8/13).

2010'S - A DECADE OF DOMINANCE FOR MCCOY

McCoy became a full-time starter in the NFL in 2010, his second season in the league. Since then, he leads the NFL in several categories in the decade (2010-17), including:

SNOW MAN

Playing in heavy snow brings out the best in McCoy, who logged two of his top six rushing games of his career while playing in several inches of snow.

In 2013, McCoy broke the Eagles single-game rushing record with 217 yards in a comeback win vs. Detroit. Four years later, McCoy capped off a 156-yard rushing performance with a game-winning, 21-yard touchdown in overtime vs. Indianapolis.

SHADES OF GREATNESS

After McCoy's grandmother, Maryann Branch, lost her battle with ALS, the disease has become a driving force behind the creation of his foundation – Shades of Greatness.

This foundation is dedicated to helping the fight against Lou Gehrig's Disease (ALS) and provides direct support to individuals battling ALS to ensure a comfortable quality of life while supporting their family and caregivers in providing quality of life care.

Each year in Buffalo and Harrisburg, his foundation conducts an annual backpack giveaway in September, an annual Thanksgiving turkey giveaway as well as a cold-weather gear giveaway around Christmas.

PERSEVERANCE AT A YOUNG AGE

On pace to shatter the state's rushing record during his senior season at Bishop McDevitt HS, McCoy suffered a compound ankle fracture during the fourth game and missed the rest of the season.

"I felt like I was on top of the world," recalled McCoy. "Then at the very next moment I lost it all." After one year of prep school at Milford Academy in New York, McCoy was given a chance to play Division I football by Pittsburgh coach Dave Wannstedt. In 2012, he (#20) joined Ricky Watters as the only two players to have their jersey numbers retired by Bishop McDevitt. McCoy began playing football as a running back for the East Shore Royals in Harrisburg.

FIRST-AND-10

KELCIE MCCRAY entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2012 with Miami. He spent his rookie season with the Dolphins on injured reserve, then appeared in 15 games with the Dolphins and Tampa Bay in 2013. The Bucs traded him to Kansas City in 2014 and the Chiefs traded him to the Seahawks on the final roster cutdown day of 2015. He played in all 32 games of the 2015-16 seasons with Seattle, starting seven times at safety.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FROM DB to QB to DB

Began playing football at Baker Middle School as a cornerback. Over time, he developed into the starting quarterback for Hardaway High School in Columbus, GA, where his back-up QB was current Seahawks and former Eagles defensive end Marcus Smith. He was recruited, however, by Arkansas State to play safety. His welcome to the NFL moment: "During the first play of my first full-team drill in training camp, I picked off [fellow rookie] Ryan Tannehill."

NOTABLE

Grew up a fan of the Atlanta Falcons, Michael Vick and Kobe Bryant. He lists Bryant's last game as his favorite sports memory as a fan. If he could play any other sport, he would be a small forward for the Lakers.

PERSONAL

The son of the late Brenda Fulks and Curt. Has a daughter, Karter. Earned a degree in mathematics. Lettered in football and basketball in high school. Enjoys movies, reading, watching The Office on Netflix, paddle boarding, and jet skiing in his free time.

LJ McCRAY signed to the Bills practice squad in November of 2017 after two seasons with the San Francisco 49ers and a stint with the Carolina Panthers. Prior to entering the NFL in 2014, McCray played for Division-II Catawba College.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

RECORD SETTING RETURNER

While playing at Catawba, McCray established himself as one of the best returners in the country. As a sophomore in college, McCray was ranked first in the country in D-II, averaging 32.5 yards on kick returns.

His best game came in 2010 when he recorded a D-II record 304 kick return yards in a single game while recording two returns for touchdowns. Catawba would fall in the game to Tusculum, 54-44, but McCray had established himself as a return threat. He finished his career at Catawba with a school record 2,212 career kickoff yards.

DOG LIFE

When he's not playing football, McCray can be found with his three dogs. He has two pitbulls (Roxie and Duece) and his pride and joy, a 170-pound cane corso named Primo.

PERSONAL

Born June 19, 1991 in Georgetown, South Carolina, LJ is the son of James and Valerie McCray. He is one of seven children. McCray studied communications and graduated from Catawba College. His full name is James O'Neal McCray Jr. and he goes by LJ for "Little James".

FIRST-AND-10

CONOR MCDERMOTT was claimed off waivers by the Bills in 2017 after being drafted in the sixth round (211th overall) by the New England Patriots out of UCLA. He finished the 2017 season with 3 games played. McDermott earned second-team All-Pac 12 honors in back-to-back seasons with the Bruins (2015-16).

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BASKETBALL LOVE

Growing up, McDermott was much more focused on making it to the NBA in comparison to the NFL. He didn't even send out highlight tapes of himself playing football in high school until after his senior season.

As a senior in high school, McDermott was named Mr. Basketball for Division II-AA in the state of Tennessee and was able to lead his school to a state championship in not only basketball, but football as well.

He averaged 15 points per game to go along with 8.5 rebounds while playing at a slim 235 pounds on his 6-8 frame. It wasn't until the UCLA coaches came calling that he made the full-time switch to football and started putting on the weight to get him to where he is today.

PERSONAL

Born October 19, 1992 in Nashville, Tennessee, Conor is the son of Kevin and Deborah McDermott. McDermott studied political science and graduated from UCLA.

FIRST-AND-10

MATT MILANO finished his first season with the Bills after being drafted by the team in the fifth round (163rd overall) out of Boston College. He finished the 2017 season with 43 tackles in 16 games including 5 starts. He also logged one interception and one fumble recovery.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

MINIMALIST

Milano doesn't need much to do his job. He is a self-proclaimed minimalist and travelled to Buffalo for the 2018 off-season program with only one suitcase.

OVERCOMING THE ODDS

Milano grew up in a football hotbed in Florida and was a three-star recruit when he began to look at college. During his senior year, he was named Orlando Sentinel's Defensive Player of the Year and opted to take his talents to Boston College. The transition was not seamless however, and he only logged five tackles during his freshman season. Milano says that the transition from different levels of football is the biggest obstacle he has had to overcome.

The jump from college to NFL was also a tough challenge for the linebacker, but Milano made the most of it, earning a starting role by the end of the season.

PERSONAL

Born July 28, 1994 in Orlando, Florida, Matt is the son of Mike and Janet Milano. Matt studied Psychology and Communications and graduated from Boston College.

FIRST-AND-10

JOHN MILLER is entering his fourth season on the Bills offensive line after joining the team as the 81st overall selection in the third round of the 2015 Draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

DAILY INSPIRATION

Miller's world was rocked during his rookie season when his mother passed away at the age of 46 after a lengthy battle with cancer. Her memory has served as an inspiration for John whenever he faces any obstacles in his professional or personal life. He lists her obituary as his most prized possession.

It was her memory that has pushed Miller to be as involved in the community as he possibly can. Whether it is in Buffalo or back home in Miami, Miller has used the John Miller Foundation to work with inner city children and run back-to-school drives.

This past year, Miller hosted his second annual football camp, put together a Thanksgiving meal giveaway at the Belle Center in Buffalo and a holiday shopping spree at Target for 10 kids from Child & Family Services.

PERSONAL

Born August 12, 1993 in Miami, Florida, John is the son of Johnnie Green and the late Ernestine Miller. Miller studied Justice Administration and graduated from the University of Louisville. He plans to pursue a career in real estate after his playing career.

FIRST-AND-10

JORDAN MILLS joined the Bills after spending time with the Chicago Bears, Dallas Cowboys and Detroit Lions. Mills was drafted out of Louisiana Tech by the Bears in the fifth round (163rd overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft. The offensive lineman played two seasons in Chicago before brief stints with the Cowboys and Lions in 2015.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

NFL FAMILY

Mills is cousins with not one, but two former NFL players in former New York Giants running back Brandon Jacobs and former Packers and Browns cornerback Tramon Williams. All three attended Assumption High School in southeast Louisiana, and Williams and Mills each played at Louisiana Tech before coming into the league.

GIVING BACK

Mills makes it a priority to be active in the community and give back to others during and outside of the season. He and his wife handed out Thanksgiving meals at the annual Bills' Thanksgiving Blitz. He also works with the NAACP throughout the year.

For the My Cause, My Cleats game in November 2017, Mills opted to wear cleats in honor of his nephew, Rodney, who is battling sickle-cell anemia.

PERSONAL

Jordan, born December 24, 1990 in Thibodaux, Louisiana, is the son of O'Neal and Margaret Mills. He has 7 siblings. He and his wife, Talasha, were married in July 2017.

FIRST-AND-10

A speedy and shifty running back and returner, MARCUS MURPHY is in his 2nd season in Buffalo after signing to the practice squad late in 2017 season and then being promoted to the active roster prior to the season finale. Originally a 7th round draft pick of New Orleans in 2015, the Missouri product spent his first two seasons with the Saints before being released in July, 2017. He was on both the Jets and Colts practice squads in 2017 before joining Buffalo.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

EARLY LIFE LESSON

Always remembers the lesson from his parents to never give up. Recalled Murphy, "I didn't make the freshman 'A team' during my first year of high school. I thought a lot about quitting, but didn't. I eventually did move up to the A team. And later that year, I ended up playing on the varsity team."

REMEMBERING CHUCK

Fondly remembers one of his mentors growing up, Lonnie Jackson. "We called him 'Chuck.' We were so close I thought he was my grandfather. But he was just a family friend. He was everything to me. He died when I was 11 from lung cancer. He taught me how to be a man. I spent a lot of time with him growing up."

TRACK STAR

Won the state title in both the 4x100m and 4x200m as a senior in high school.

PERSONAL

The son of William, a truck driver, and Tonnette, a Walmart supervisor.

Has a son, Marcus, Jr. His older brother, William, serves in the US Air Force. Has a pitbull named Layla. Earned a degree in sports management.

DECEMBER 22, 1990 (AGE 27)

PHOENIX, ARIZONA

BROPHY COLLEGE PREP

STANFORD

ACQUIRED 2018

Came to the Bills via free agency on March 14, 2018.

SHOUTOUTS

- Had a breakout season in 2016 when he recorded a career-high 9.0 sacks, 24 quarterback hits, 10 tackles for a loss and 46 tackles.
- Was a consensus first-team All-American during his redshirt senior year in 2013.
- At the end of his collegiate career, Murphy ranked third in Stanford history 32.5 career sacks and was fifth in school history with 52.5 tackles for loss.
- Participated in discus in both college and in high school. While in high school, he was the Arizona state champion.
- Gained 30 pounds during the 2016 offseason while preparing to switch from outside linebacker to defensive end, but was switched back to linebacker prior to the season starting. He responded with his best season.
- Is an avid outdoorsman who enjoys hunting and fishing.

FIRST-AND-10

TRENT MURPHY comes to the Bills after four seasons with the Washington Redskins (2014-17). The defensive end was drafted by the Redskins in the second round (47th overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft. He has recorded 110 tackles and 15.0 sacks in his career.

ARIZONA TOUGH

Murphy credits his toughness to his childhood growing up in Arizona as the middle child of seven. Growing up in the rural community of Lehi, he did team roping with his dad, climbed rock formations with his friends and they had horses, steer, chickens and goats on their family farm.

Murphy even went so far as to practice wrestling with a 400-lb steer calf just for fun while dreaming of being a rodeo clown.

GIVING BACK

Murphy made it a point during his time with the Redskins to give back to the D.C. community. He was a frequent participant in the Fuel Up to Play 60 program and visited children in the Ronald McDonald House on multiple occasions. He also helped provide school supplies and clothes to kids in the Richmond area during a Back to School shopping event.

PERSONAL

Murphy is the son of Jerry and Laurie Murphy. He has five sisters and one brother. While at Stanford, he graduated with a degree in science, technology and society with a minor in political science.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

WORKOUT WARRIOR

Coming from a family of athletes, Murphy has always been borderline obsessed with working out. This obsession has led to his creation of his own home gym.

He recently told One Bills Live, "There's something about where you lay your head at night and being able to go into the next room and get extra work any time you need it. To have the ability to outwork my opponents all the time even where I rest is a huge advantage."

DISCUS DREAMS

When most players end their career in the NFL, they ease back on their athletic pursuits. Don't expect the same from Trent Murphy. He has expressed interest in throwing the discus, which is a sport he excelled in during his high school days.

Murphy threw discus for Stanford's track and field team in 2011 and he was the 2009 Arizona State Discus Champion while attending high school at Brophy College Preparatory. He threw a personal record 193 feet while at Brophy.

SIRAN NEAL arrives in Buffalo after spending four seasons at Jacksonville State (2013-17). A back-to-back first-team All-Ohio Valley selection in 2016-17, Neal was the 154th selection of the fifth round by the Bills in 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

WHATEVER IT TAKES

Back during his high school playing days with the Eufaula High Yellow Jackets, Neal was an All-State wide receiver in both 2012 and 2011, when he totaled 76 receptions and 21 touchdowns.

Upon arriving at Jacksonville State, the Gamecocks coaches switched Neal over to the defensive side of the ball and put him at linebacker. The switch paid off when in 2016 he made 80 tackles, 11.5 for loss, an interception and four pass break-ups to become an All-Conference selection.

Despite how well he performed at the linebacker position, Gamecock coaches again asked him to switch positions in 2017 and moved him back to the safety position.

Adept at finding ways to help the team win, Neal embraced the change telling the Gadsden Times, "I love it. It's something different for me, but I'll get the job done. They put me out there so I have to perform my task."

Once again Neal's position change was seamless and he again was a first-team All-Conference selection in 2017.

PERSONAL

The son of Glenn Neal and Rhonda Walker, Siran has six brothers and one sister. He also has twin daughters, Londyn and Lauryn Neal. He earned his degree in criminal justice.

MENTORING MAN

When he's not on the football field, Newhouse takes time to influence and inspire those who might need it. "There are times back home, if I get a group of kids in football camp or an afterschool program, it's an opportunity for me to impart some of my experiences on them. I like mentoring young black men. There's often times not a lot of active role models in their lives, or guys who can give them advice and lead them in life. And so I enjoy doing stuff like that, even on my teams among younger players," Newhouse told Athletes Quarterly.

FOOD FOR THE SOUL

Newhouse describes himself as both a guy who loves to eat and loves to cook. Growing up, he was always helping his mom in the kitchen, and assisting his dad who ran the barbeque. "I love the origins of where cuisine comes from, and eating new stuff, trying new things."

This past offseason, Newhouse acted as a judge at the Austin Ice Cream Festival and will be featured in Edible Austin Magazine, cooking one of his favorite dishes.

- Spent all four years at TCU (2006-09) with Bills DE Jerry Hughes.
- Recorded a time of 7.40 seconds in the three cone drill at the 2010 NFL.

FIRST-AND-10

MARSHALL NEWHOUSE comes to the Bills after spending last season with the Oakland Raiders. The offensive tackle entered the NFL as a fifth round draft pick with the Green Bay Packers in 2010. He has also played for the Cincinnati Bengals (2014) and the New York Giants (2015-16).

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

TECH FOCUSED

Newhouse has a large interest in the tech community. "My Dad is a computer programmer, so that's how I got started," Newhouse told Athletes Quarterly. "When I was a kid, I started building PCs and I was into computer pc gaming."

Newhouse was able to take time to visit the Facebook headquarters with the Athletes Transition U business combine. He also attended the Consumer Electronics Show and AfroTech, which is a conference focused on African-American tech entrepreneurs.

He attended SXSW in 2017 and took time to appear on a panel to talk about wearable technology.

"I was part of a panel at SXSW, talking technology, and how that kind of equates in the professional athlete field. I'm big into technology in my spare time."

O'Leary's grandfather is a name that all golf fans recognize--18-time major winner Jack Nicklaus.

In 2011, O'Leary got a chance to really see his grandfather in his element as he caddied for Jack in The Masters par-3 contest. O'Leary even got to stand in and take a swing for his grandfather during the contest.

The tournament in 2011 was also the 25 year anniversary of Nicklaus' recording his sixth Masters victory at age 46, which made him the oldest player to put on the green jacket.

"I had no idea," O'Leary said. "Never knew about it until just before we got here. I saw the books about the 1986 Masters and asked him if he won. Didn't know he did it at 46, either. ... He doesn't talk about that stuff much, so I didn't know."

OWAMAGBE ODIGHIZUWA

(pronounced oh-wah-MAH-boy oh-diggy-ZOO-wah) joins the Bills after spending two seasons with the New York Giants. He originally entered the NFL in 2015 as a third round (74th overall) draft pick by the Giants.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

ATHLETIC GENES

Owamagbe Odighizuwa, also known as Owa, is not the only athlete in his family. He is one of four boys and two of his younger brothers are also collegiate athletes. One of his brothers, Osa, currently is a defensive lineman at UCLA, choosing to follow in Owa's footsteps. One of his other younger brothers, Iho, wrestled at Oregon State.

Besides being talented on the football field, Owa also had success in both track and basketball. In track, he competed in both the 100-meter sprint and the shot put. If he could do any other sport now, he says he would train for the 100-meter in track.

Outside of football, Owa enjoys giving back to the community. While with the Giants, he helped unload turkeys at a food bank in New York City and served dinners at a community kitchen.

PERSONAL

Born April 1, 1992, Owa is the son of Abieyuwa Odighizuwa. He has three brothers. His mother is a certified nursing assistant. He graduated UCLA with a degree in philosophy.

FIRST-AND-10

A former walk-on at Division II Winona State in Minnesota, ZACH OLSTAD paved an incredible path to the NFL after graduating from a high school class of just 40 people. Olstad eventually became a four-year starter for the Warriors and was signed by the Bills after a tryout during the team's rookie mini-camp in 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'DOING THE DIRTY WORK

Since high school, Olstad has spent his summers working as a school bus mechanic in his hometown. "Anything we need to do to get them ready for next year, we do. From cleaning them to fixing them." His prized possession is a gift from his brother - a necklace which contains a hexnut from the bus shed. The hexnut has Olstad engraved on it.

SOUND ADVICE

Has trained a few times with Vikings star WR Adam Theilman (also an undrafted Division II player from Minnesota) at ETS Next Level in Oakdale, MN, and has soaked in his advice and work ethic. "He told me I'm a prime example of what you can do. Stay humble. Give 110% every play and do the little things right."

FARMING AND FOOTBALL

Grew up in a farming family and used that work as part of his training regimen. "I flip tractor tires, run hills. It's tough work, but worthwhile." Aspires to own and operate a farm himself someday.

PERSONAL

The son of Melanie and Heath Olstad, he has a brother, Levi, and a sister, Melody. Also has a Golden Lab named Copper. His second cousin, Steve Heiden, is a former NFL player. Graduated with honors (3.87 GPA) in education and began his master's degree in sports management/leadership.

SHOUTOUTS

- Palepoi bounced back after a disappointing end to the 2016 season and he set career-highs with 24 tackles and seven tackles for a loss in 2017 for the Chargers.
- Was named second-team All Pac-12 in 2013 after posting 53 tackles at Utah.
- In 2012, Palepoi teamed with Bills DT Star Lotulelei at Utah on the defensive line. Both players also attended Snow College before their arrival at Utah. Palepoi was named a NJCAA All-American for his play in 2011 at Snow.

FIRST-AND-10

TENNY PALEPOI spent four seasons with the Los Angeles Chargers before signing with the Bills this offseason. Palepoi originally entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2014 with the Chargers and he has appeared in 44 career games on the interior of the defensive line.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FAMILY FIRST

Tenny Palepoi had a little more insight in to what it takes to play in the NFL because his brother Anton played defensive end in the league from 2002-07. Anton spent time with the Seahawks, Broncos and Cardinals after his collegiate career at UNLV.

"Just going to those games, especially the Denver games and the Seattle games, it just made me love the sport even more," Palepoi told KSL Sports.

Palepoi is one of 14 children that grew up under Tony and Tutaga Palepoi. The Palepois learned their passion for sports from their father who played for the Samoa national rugby union team.

He describes his family as a close-knit unit that was brought even closer due to the passing of his older brother, Francis, at the age of 42. "It's truly a blessing to be with family given how precious life is."

PERSONAL

Palepoi (pah-lay-poy) is the son of Tony and Tutaga Palepoi. Palepoi and his wife, Delaney, have four children - daughters Taytum, Kamora and Remi, and son Liam. Graduated in the fall of 2013 with his degree in sociology at Utah.

PITTSBURGH

ACQUIRED 2017

Drafted by the Bills in the fifth round (171st overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

SHOUTOUTS

- Peterman went 7-for-10 for 79 yards and one touchdown in the fourth quarter of the Bills matchup with New Orleans in Week 10 in his first NFL action.
- In 2017 preseason play, Peterman completed 43 of his 79 pass attempts for 453 yards and one touchdown.
- In his senior season at Pitt, Peterman led the ACC in pass efficiency (163.4 rating), yards per completion (15.43) and yards per attempt (9.33).
- Has two career touchdown passes - one to TE Nick O'Leary and the other to WR Kelvin Benjamin. The first of the two was a 10-yard pass to O'Leary against the Saints and the second was a 8-yard pass to Benjamin against the Colts.
- Was named to the 2016 All-ACC Academic Football Team
- Played in four games during the 2017 season
- Led the highest scoring offense in Pitt football history, which racked up 532 points in 2016

FIRST-AND-10

NATHAN PETERMAN finished his first season with the Bills after being drafted in the fifth round out of Pittsburgh. He started two games as a rookie. Peterman played in 26 games for the Panthers and completed 378 of his 620 pass attempts for 5,142 yards and 47 touchdowns.

FAITH, FAMILY, FOOTBALL

Peterman is the son of Dana and Chuck Peterman and he is the youngest of three boys. His oldest brother, Ryan, works for Citibank and middle brother, Aaron, is a youth minister.

The Peterman family is extremely tight-knit and grounded in their faith. Nathan's father, Chuck, started the Creekside Christian Church out of their Florida home on Mother's Day in 2002.

"Luckily, I think they just raised us so well that they told us, 'Hey, it's your choice,'" Nathan told the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette about his Christian faith. "Honestly, I was just completely blessed with two other brothers that paved the way for me and showed me it is cool to be a Christian."

3DQB

Peterman spent time during the 2018 offseason training with Dr. Tom House at 3DQB, who has previously worked with Tom Brady and Drew Brees. While there, he focused mainly on mechanics and preparing for OTAs in the spring.

PERSONAL

Born May 4, 1994 in Jacksonville, Florida, Nathan is the son of Dana and Chuck Peterman. He lives with his wife, Morgan, and they have a Yellow Lab named Copper.

DEATH VALLEY UPSET

Peterman put his name on the map on November 12, 2016 when he led the Pitt Panthers to a 43-42 upset win over Deshaun Watson and the #2 Clemson Tigers in Death Valley.

Peterman was named the Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week after throwing for a career-high 308 yards and five touchdowns. He was the first player with five passing touchdowns and no interceptions against an AP top-3 opponent since Matt Leinart did it for USC against Oklahoma in the 2004 National Championship.

MY CAUSE, MY CLEATS

Nathan participated in the NFL initiative "My Cause, My Cleats" during the Week 13 game against the New England Patriots by wearing cleats in support of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. Both of Nathan's older brothers have Type One Juvenile Diabetes.

"If I could tell those affected by my cause one message, it would be to hang in there, stay strong, and stay consistent," Peterman said in support of JDRF.

CAM PHILLIPS leaves Virginia Tech (2014-17) after a four year collegiate career with the Hokies. Phillips signed with the Bills as an undrafted free agent following the 2018 NFL Draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FASHION FORWARD

Phillips describes himself as someone who is pretty quiet, but as a result likes to let his fashion do the talking for him.

Phillips' fashion made headlines last year when he attended the Atlantic Coast Conference preseason media day. Phillips sported a bronze double-breasted velvet jacket and round flip up sunglasses.

"I just like to have fun with stuff like this," Phillips said. "I think it's a way to show my personality, show fans and other players I'm a laidback and cool, fun guy. I'm having a great time at this event."

Phillips also noted that his shades had some additional meaning as they were an ode to Kadeem Hardison's character on the TV show "A Different World" from the late 1980s and early 1990s.

In addition to fashion, Phillips enjoys displaying his personality via cooking.

- Secured All-Pac-12 honorable mention after his junior season during which he compiled 46 tackles, 9.5 tackles for a loss and 6.5 sacks.
- Was a team captain in 2017.
- Was named to the Pac-12 All-Academic team for both the 2016 and 2017 seasons.
- Had a career high 13 tackles in the 2017 Pac-12 Championship game against USC.
- Earned the Alamo Bowl Sportsmanship Award for the 2017 Alamo Bowl.
- Was named the 2013 Gatorade Nebraska Football Player of the Year during his senior year of high school.

FIRST-AND-10

HARRISON PHILLIPS leaves Stanford (2014-17) after leading the Cardinal with 103 tackles as a team captain in his senior year. A first-team All-Pac-12 selection in 2017, Phillips was the 96th overall selection in the third round by the Bills in 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

WRESTLING CHAMPION

In addition to his dominant play on the gridiron while in high school at Millard West in Nebraska, Phillips was also a force to be reckoned with in wrestling.

A three-time state champion, Phillips lettered in wrestling for four years and he worked his way up from wrestling at 189 pounds as a freshman to winning the Class A 285-pound state title as a senior. His experiences as a wrestler have helped in his growth as a football player.

"All the football coaches loved that I was a wrestler. It means you're good with your hips and good with your hands," he told the Lincoln Journal Star when he was in high school. "You have to be able to shoot, and that's like firing off the line. You have to be quick and agile."

Phillips also was a four-time track and field varsity letterwinner in high school and finished second in the state in discus.

PERSONAL

The son of Paul and Tammie Rose Phillips, Harrison also has a sister, Delanie, who played soccer at Nebraska-Kearney. Harrison was a double major in sociology and science, technology and society with a minor in education while at Stanford.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

COMMITTED TO THE COMMUNITY

Phillips not only played football and had a double major while at Stanford, but he also made sure to spend a considerable amount of time in the community.

Phillips was one of 11 FBS players named to the 2017 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team for his community work. He is a board member of The Playmakers Organization, which is committed to mentoring at-risk minority youth. He was involved in the program both in California and back home in Nebraska.

KING OF THE BOARDS

Phillips was willing to do anything to earn a scholarship to play football and despite dominating on the Nebraska high school scene, he wasn't getting the offers he thought he deserved.

The Phillips family took a calculated risk and sent Harrison off to a Stanford football camp for one last shot at his dream. At the camp, Harrison won the one-on-one battle known as "King of the Boards" against much bigger opponents and finally earned his scholarship. The risk paid off big time.

LAFAYETTE PITTS joined the Bills in 2017 after playing six games with the Jacksonville Jaguars in the same season. Pitts entered the NFL in 2016 as an undrafted free agent with Miami. He spent time on the Dolphins practice squad and active roster before joining the Jaguars on September 3rd, 2017.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

PITT PRODUCT

Pitts started in 51 games throughout his four-year career as a defensive back at Pittsburgh. He recorded 152 total tackles, 29 passes defended and four interceptions. Pitts was named a senior captain in 2015 team and tied for second on the team with six passes broken up. When asked by Scott Porter by Draft Recon, Pitts said that he felt his greatest football accomplishment in college was being a four year starter at a successful D1 program. He also took tremendous pride in being named captain.

"That meant a lot to me," Pitts said. "Guys looked up to me being the leader of the team. I embraced that role as much as possible."

GIVING BACK

Pitts travelled with Dolphins teammates Matt Darr and MarQueis Groy to Amalfi, Italy in 2017 with Armed Forces Entertainment. The trio met with troops as a morale booster for those fighting for our country.

PERSONAL

Pitts graduated from the University of Pittsburgh with a degree in administration of justice. He is the son of Marsha Pitts and Clifton Carley.

FIRST-AND-10

MO PORTER joins the Bills after completing his collegiate career at Baylor (2015-17) following a two-year stint at Navarro College (2013-14). A Texas native, Porter was signed as an undrafted free agent by the Bills in this past offseason.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A HIDDEN MUSICIAN

At an early age, Mo Porter discovered a love of music in the form of his middle school band. Skilled in the baritone tuba and trombone, Porter spent much of his childhood performing, winning numerous competitions and showcases.

"You look at me and you wouldn't really expect me to be a band geek. I was pretty good, too."

When Mo became a sophomore in high school, however, he found a new love in football. He was hit with a difficult decision: continue playing music or pursue football. He chose the latter.

"I played in bands all my life, but I gave it up my sophomore year to fully commit to football. I wanted to work hard to be the best, so that meant committing to one. I chose football."

The best advice Mo ever received was 'Don't ever give up and don't doubt yourself'. After deciding to chase football, he continues to exemplify that mantra.

PERSONAL

The son of Raquel Porter. Was a Health, Kinesiology, and Leisure Studies major at Baylor.

ASTORIA, OREGON

ASTORIA HIGH SCHOOL

OREGON STATE

ACQUIRED 2017

Came to the Bills via free agency on March 9, 2017.

SHOUTOUTS

- Poyer was the only player in the NFL in 2017 with over 95 tackles, two sacks and five interceptions.
- In his first season as a full-time starter, Poyer set a career-high with 95 tackles, 5 interceptions and 13 passes defended.
- Was the first consensus All-America selection at Oregon State since John Didion in 1967.
- Poyer recorded his first career pick-six against the New England Patriots in Week 16 when he intercepted Patriots QB Tom Brady and returned the pass 19 yards for the touchdown.
- Poyer became the first Bill since Sam Adams in 2003 to tally a sack and an interception in his first game as a Bill
- Poyer also became the first defensive back in the NFL to record a sack and an interception on Kickoff Weekend since Harrison Smith did it for the Vikings in 2014.
- Lists his parents as his biggest influences due to their work as juvenile delinquent counselors.

FIRST-AND-10

JORDAN POYER came to the Bills through free agency in 2017 after previously playing for the Cleveland Browns and the Philadelphia Eagles. The Oregon native has appeared in 63 games with 25 starts after he was drafted in the seventh round of the 2013 NFL Draft by the Eagles.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

ED BLOCK AWARD

Poyer was named the 2017 Ed Block Courage Award winner for the Bills after returning from a lacerated kidney and bruised liver he suffered while playing for the Cleveland Browns in 2016 and performing at a career-best level.

He was the only player in the NFL in 2017 to record over 95 tackles, two sacks and five interceptions as he helped guide the Bills to their first playoff appearance in 17 years.

The Ed Block Courage Award is presented to the Buffalo Bills player who exemplifies a commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. The recipient symbolizes professionalism, great strength, dedication and serves as a community role model for others.

Poyer was honored at the 40th annual national Ed Block Courage Awards Foundation ceremony in Baltimore in March.

PERSONAL

Born April 25, 1991 in Astoria, Oregon, Jordan is the son of Julie and Fa'alaeo Poyer. Poyer studied Communications and graduated from Oregon State University. He lives with his wife, Rachel, and their daughter, Aliyah. Poyer also has two bulldogs named Taz and Luna.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME

If it wasn't for his love of football, Poyer believes he could be playing baseball in the MLB today. Drafted in the 42nd round of the 2009 MLB Draft by the Marlins following a stellar high school career, Poyer instead chose to play football and pursue baseball at Oregon State. Poyer chose to quit baseball to focus on football while with the Beavers, but the passion never went away. Poyer recently took part in batting practice with the Buffalo Bisons and threw out the first pitch on May 7th before their game against the Rochester Red Wings.

SCHOLASTIC SUPERSTAR

Poyer remains a high school legend in his hometown of Astoria, Oregon. He led his school to state titles in both football and baseball on the 4A level. On the gridiron, he was named the 4A Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year as a senior, starring as a quarterback and a safety. On the basketball court, he was named the 2009 Cowapa League Player of the Year and he pitched the baseball team to a state title. In all, Poyer earned 11 varsity letters, which puts him as one of the most decorated athletes in Oregon high school history.

FIRST-AND-10

AUSTIN PROEHL leaves UNC (2014-17) after a four year collegiate career with the Tar Heels. A North Carolina native, Proehl was the 255th overall selection in the seventh round by the Bills in 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FATHER-SON CONNECTION

Proehl's father is a name football fans may be familiar with, Ricky Proehl played 17 years in the NFL with his career including stops with the Cardinals, Seahawks, Bears, Rams, Panthers and the Colts.

While Austin has assuredly taken away tidbits from his dad about succeeding between the white lines, he has also learned from his father how to use the platform to make an impact off the field and in the community.

Every Christmas, the Proehls try to spend time with children in need. It started in St. Louis, where Ricky spent five seasons with the Rams, by bringing gifts to children at the Ronald McDonald House.

"You don't realize what it can do for someone until you actually stand in that room with them," Austin told the Charlotte Observer in 2017.

Austin works closely with the P.O.W.E.R. of play foundation, which was founded by his father. The foundation focuses on helping children and teaching the core values of play, opportunity, work, excellence and respect.

ADAM-BOT

Redmond completed his career at Harvard in 2015 with numerous accolades and a fitting nickname. During his senior campaign, Redmond and his fellow Crimson offensive linemen helped Harvard average 36.4 points per game, which happened to be the highest mark in the Ivy League that season.

Redmond's Crimson teams from 2012-15 compiled a 36-4 record. The team either won or tied the Ivy League championship in three of Redmond's four seasons at Harvard.

With the Crimson, Redmond was known as "Adam-Bot," a badge he wore with pride. The nickname was a testament to his dedication and discipline both as a football player and as an excellent student. His teammates saw him go about his day virtually like a robot, and the nickname was born.

PERSONAL

Born May 19, 1993 in Strongsville, Ohio, Adam is the son of Brian and Jeanne Redmond. He has one brother and one sister. Redmond studied sociology with a history minor and graduated from Harvard. He lives with his fiancée, Kaela.

BRANDON REILLY was promoted to the 53-man roster after spending the first 13 weeks of the 2017 season on the Bills practice squad. Reilly originally signed with the Bills as an undrafted free agent out of Nebraska.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FROM ICE TO TURF

Reilly grew up his entire life knowing one sport: hockey. He was introduced to Pop Warner football a handful of times, but stuck with the ice. In eighth grade, Reilly was ranked seventh amongst prospects in the nation. He had the opportunity to move away for high school, but ultimately made the biggest decision of his life.

"I didn't want to move away for high school, so I made the tough decision to quit hockey and pursue high school sports instead."

Reilly's proceeded to have a stellar football career at Lincoln Southwest High, which included a senior season in which he saw eight of his nine touchdowns garner for 50 yards or more. He was a zero-star wideout coming out of high school, but that didn't stop him from walking on at Nebraska to join what was one of the top wide receiving corps in the nation at the time. After four productive seasons for the Cornhuskers, Reilly went undrafted in 2017 before being promoted to the active roster in week 14.

PERSONAL

Born September 23, 1993, Reilly is the son of Paul Reilly and Julie Matthes. He has one brother, Austin, who graduated from medical school in 2018. Brandon graduated with degrees in marketing and management.

COMMUNITY CHAMPION

Schmidt may be just as dedicated to making an impact off the field as he is on. Through his work with Classroom Champions, the P.U.N.T. Foundation and the Fire Family Foundation, Schmidt has established himself as a difference maker both in Buffalo and back home in California.

This past season, Schmidt worked closely with children through the program Classroom Champions. The program provides mentoring from athletes to students and Schmidt worked with five different classrooms in the Buffalo region. Classroom Champions was started in 2009 by Olympic Gold Medalist and Buffalo native Steve Mesler.

Schmidt had each student sign his cleats that he wore during the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign.

"To me it seems simple – I show up and you can see the impact it has, so it's a no brainer to do something like that and we are in a position to positively affect them," Schmidt told WBFO in November of 2017.

PERSONAL

Born October 27, 1990 in Bakersfield, California, Colton is the son of Mark and Deborah Schmidt. Schmidt graduated with a degree in Psychology from the University of California, Davis.

GIVING BACK

Stanford still keeps his hometown of Bloomfield, Connecticut on his mind often. At Thanksgiving time in 2017, he decided that it was time to give back to the small town. Stanford and his wife Tiffany partnered with Foodshare to provide turkey dinners for 150 families in the community.

"I just wanted to do something for my community," Stanford told the Hartford Courant. "Bloomfield is a small town, so sometimes it gets overlooked. It brings me a lot of joy to know I'm making someone's holiday better."

Thanksgiving isn't the only time Stanford chooses to give back to others, however. During the 2018 off season he visited the Academy of Aerospace and Engineering, where he shared his story with current students for their career day.

PERSONAL

The son of Julie Stanford, Julian married his wife Tiffany in April of 2017. The couple met while both competing as student-athletes at Wagner. Julian graduated from Wagner with a degree in information systems.

SHOUTOUTS

- Caught 18 passes for San Francisco in 2016, including two touchdowns.
- Selected by his teammates as the 2015 Oakland Raiders recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award. This award honors those players who exemplify commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage.
- Chosen by his teammates as Raiders Nominee for the NFLPA Byron "Whizzer" White Award in 2014 for his community service.
- Notched career highs with 60 catches, 888 yards, and four touchdowns with the Raiders in 2013.
- Despite signing as an undrafted free agent in 2012 by Oakland, he started the season opener as a rookie on Monday Night Football against San Diego. He caught four passes, including his first career TD from Carson Palmer and a two-point conversion.
- Was a part of a Temple squad in 2011 that won their first bowl game since 1979.

After missing the entire 2017 season due to a toe injury suffered in the Bills second preseason game, veteran ROD STREATER is back in Buffalo in 2018. Originally signed as a rookie free agent by Oakland in 2012, Streater played his first four NFL seasons with the Raiders before signing with Kansas City as an unrestricted free agent in 2016. Before that season started though, the Temple University product was traded to San Francisco, where he played in all 16 games for the 49ers.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FAMILY FIRST

Streater is quick to credit his parents for where he is today in his career. Even though his mother, Darlene, passed away from breast cancer on October 14, 2014, during his 3rd NFL season with the Raiders, he still remembers how upbeat she was and tries to carry on her legacy. "She was so positive," Streater reflected. "She always had a positive vibe around her."

Streater's father, Kevin, "has always been there for me. He is my biggest supporter, especially for football. I had a few friends growing up that didn't have a father in their life and it made me appreciate it that much more."

PERSONAL

Married to Kristina. They own a Shitzu Pomeranian named Meko. He is the son of Kevin and the late Darlene Streater. He has an older brother, Kevin. Earned a degree in communications from Temple, becoming the first member of his family to graduate from college. Began playing football at the age of 10 for the Burlington Falcons as a running back.

ROD STREATER FOUNDATION

The Rod Streater Foundation was founded in 2014 to promote a healthy lifestyle through leadership, respect and positive attitudes. It is his "opportunity to reach out to children and adults who are overcoming cancer and to offer an inspirational message of 'Hope and Courage' in honor of my mother."

His main source of motivation as a player is to inspire youth and give back to his hometown. He often spends his spare time working with the American Cancer Society and with less fortunate children.

WHATEVER IT TAKES

Recruited to Virginia Tech as a top defensive line prospect (rated the 6th best defensive end recruit by Rivals), Teller knew he was destined to play in the trenches, but could not have foreseen the transition that awaited him.

Despite being a highly touted defensive line prospect, when Virginia Tech experienced injury concerns along their offense line during Teller's freshman year, he volunteered to make the switch if it would help the team.

"I noticed that I think four or five offensive linemen were injured and their backs were against the wall..." Teller told TheKeyPlay.com. "So one day after practice I said 'I'm willing to move to offensive line, I played offensive line in high school, and I'm not afraid to make the change.'"

PERSONAL

The son of Richard and Cheryl Teller, he has an older brother and three older sisters. Majored in property management while at Va Tech. First name is William, but prefers to go by his middle name Wyatt.

LOGAN THOMAS joined the Bills in 2016 following time with the Arizona Cardinals, Miami Dolphins, New York Giants, and Detroit Lions. Thomas was drafted by the Cardinals in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft out of Virginia Tech.

POSITION CHANGE

The position change of Logan Thomas has been well documented as he has made the move from quarterback to tight end. Thomas has stated that this position change has been the biggest obstacle he's faced in his career. After a standout collegiate career playing quarterback at Virginia Tech, Thomas managed to complete one pass in the NFL, an 81-yard touchdown against the Denver Broncos while he was with the Arizona Cardinals before switching over to tight end.

"I had to learn a completely different set of ideals, a completely different verbiage, but it's going very smoothly. Thankfully going from quarterback to tight end is a lot easier than going from tight end to quarterback," Thomas said.

After making the conversion, Thomas caught the first touchdown pass of his career in the third quarter of the team's Week 7 matchup with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, a 22-yard-pass from former Bills quarterback Tyrod Taylor.

PERSONAL

Logan is the son of Kim Tarazona. Thomas studied Human Development and graduated from Virginia Tech. He lives with his wife, Brandie and their four children.

FIRST-AND-10

COREY THOMPSON signed with the Bills as an undrafted free agent out of LSU following the 2018 NFL Draft. The linebacker played for the Tigers from 2012-17.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

POISED TO SUCCEED

Thompson's path to the NFL is a bit of a unique one, as he had to overcome numerous injuries during his time at LSU. As a result, he spent six years on campus with the Tigers.

Thompson used the time wisely, graduating with a degree in sports administration and then pursuing a masters degree in liberal arts.

Thompson not only spent his time achieving a lot in the classroom, but has developed a solid plan for his life after football. His career goal? To be a commercial real estate developer.

Thompson hopes to build and franchise restaurants like Dave and Busters that can give people a place to go and hang out. He has also given thought to extending the California-based restaurant SlapFish. A fast, casual seafood spot, Thompson says that SlapFish is some of the best food he has ever had.

PERSONAL

The son of Shante and Tony Thompson and Dyan Webber. Corey's dad, Tony, played wide receiver at Texas A&M from 1985-87 and spent time with the Green Bay Packers. His mom, Dyan Webber, was a standout on the track at both the collegiate and international levels. Graduated from LSU with bachelor's degree in sports administration.

KEITH TOWBRIDGE enters his second season with the Bills after spending four seasons at the University of Louisville. Following his collegiate career, Towbridge joined the Bills via free agency in April of 2017.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FOR THE FAMILY

In December 2016, Keith Towbridge accomplished something that no one in his family had ever achieved. Keith received his degree in Communications from the University of Louisville and officially became the first person in his family to graduate college. Outside of football, Towbridge notes this feat as his proudest achievement.

Towbridge knows the importance of working hard, whether it's when he's playing football or while he was in the classroom. His main source of motivation for both his life and career is his mother, Felesha, who works with mentally disabled patients.

"My mom gets up everyday the same time I do and does her job from 6-3:30 and 6-11. She's a nurse for the state of Ohio."

When he's not playing football, he follows in his mother's footsteps. Keith enjoys working in the community with people who suffer from disabilities.

PERSONAL

Keith is the son of Felesha and Brian Towbridge. He has two siblings: brother, Brian, and sister, Kennesha. He graduated with a degree in Communications from the University of Louisville.

My younger brother

FIRST-AND-10

TANNER VALLEJO enters his second season with the Bills after being drafted by the team in the sixth round (195th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft out of Boise State University. Vallejo earned All-Mountain West honors in three of his four seasons with the Broncos.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FOOTBALL IS FAMILY

Diagnosed with brain cancer when he was six months old, Hunter was given a two percent chance of survival, according to Vallejo's father, Rick Vallejo. Hunter is now cancer-free.

"My biggest motivation is my little brother," Vallejo said. "He's always been my motivation and he always will be. When I'm out there playing, I'm playing with him on my back."

Vallejo's father, Rick, and other brothers, Zach and Cody, showed the courage runs in the family as during the fall of 2017 they put their lives on the line battling wildfires in California. Serving as firefighters in the Lake Tahoe region of California worked 24-hour shifts to help contain the deadly flames.

PERSONAL

The son of Rick and Kelly Vallejo, Tanner was born December 16, 1994 in Penn Valley, California. Tanner has three brothers, Zach, Cody and Hunter. Tanner majored in criminal justice at Boise State.

FIRST-AND-10

A former walk-on at Alabama, LEVI WALLACE not only earned a scholarship with the Crimson Tide but also a starting role on their National Championship squad in 2017. He was signed as a rookie free agent by the Bills in 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

SPECIAL BOND

Wallace didn't have much choice for his rooting interest in college football growing up. His father, Walter, a 21-year veteran of the United States Army and Tuscaloosa, Alabama native, was passionate about Crimson Tide football.

Without a scholarship in hand, he attended the University of Alabama and tried out for the football team, a daunting task. "I almost quit a few times," recalled Wallace.

Finally, in 2016, he earned a scholarship. However, on the eve of the spring game that year, his father passed away after a bout with ALS and never got to see his son fulfill his dream of playing at Alabama.

One year later, walking off the field as National Champions after defeating Georgia, Wallace found his mother in the stands. They both pointed up to the sky in honor of Walter. "I know he's proud of me."

PERSONAL

The son of Wendy and the late Walter Wallace, he has a younger brother, Lawrence, who studies accounting at Alabama. Levi earned his degree in business with a sales certification. Hobbies include bowling, movies and roller skating.

92 DT ADOLPHUS WASHINGTON

6-4 295 3RD YEAR

NOVEMBER 24, 1992 (AGE 25)

CINCINNATI, OHIO

TAFT HIGH SCHOOL

OHIO STATE

ACQUIRED 2016

Drafted in the 3rd round (80th overall) by the Bills in 2016.

SHOUTOUTS

- Posted a career-high six tackles, including a sack of Tom Brady vs. New England (12/3/17).
- As a rookie in 2016, notched a sack in back-to-back games at LA Rams (10/9) and vs. San Francisco (10/16).
- Became the first Bills rookie defensive lineman to start on opening day since 2011.
- Accumulated 142 career tackles and 13.5 sacks for Ohio State and helped them capture the BCS National Championship in 2014.
- In high school, earned All-America honors in football and was named the Ohio Gatorade player of the year in basketball.

PERSONAL

He has a son, Dre'Zaughn and a daughter, A'Maryah. He is the son of Adolphus, Sr. and Rhonda Mason. He has two sisters, Nija and Mela, and two brothers, Myles and Adrian. Transferred to Taft High School from Roger Bacon High School following his freshman year.

FIRST-AND-10

ADOLPHUS WASHINGTON has played a key role on the Bills defensive line since being drafted in the 3rd round in 2016. A two-sport star at Taft High School in Cincinnati, Ohio, Washington settled on a career in football over basketball and helped lead the Ohio State Buckeyes to the BCS National Championship title in 2014.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

EVERY DAY IS FATHER'S DAY

Raised in a single-parent home by his father, Adolphus Sr., Washington treasures the time and lessons learned along the way. His father regrets quitting football at both Cincinnati and Triton College and openly admits he made the wrong decision. Facing a similar situation at Ohio State, the younger Washington had decided to quit football and come home and get a regular job. Until his father stepped in. "He would not let me do it. He told me if I came home I wasn't going to be staying with him."

HOT RECRUIT

Was heavily recruited for basketball and to play both sports at Cincinnati, Ohio State, and Kentucky, but ultimately decided on just football at Ohio State. "I'm tall, but in basketball, you have to be REALLY tall."

MUDDY BEGINNING

Washington began playing football at the age of four for the Winton Hill Falcons in Ohio. He played both offensive and defensive line. One of his most memorable moments playing came at the age of six when he made the game-winning tackle while playing on a muddy field. "My dad wouldn't let me ride in his car because I was so muddy!"

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

SKY WALKER

In the 2018 offseason, Washington walked outside on the ledge of the CN Tower (1,168 feet above the ground) in Toronto, Canada in an experience called the Edge Walk. Prior to that walk, his number one thing on his bucket list was to sky dive. Afterwards, it was quickly scratched off. "I still can't believe I did that."

Guinness World Records calls the Edge Walk the "World's Highest External Walk on a Building."

FOREVER BONDED

The Ohio Gatorade player of the year in basketball in 2012, Washington is forever bonded with his teammates on Taft High School's 2011 state championship squad. They set a record for the largest scoring margin in a title game, winning by 43 points (95-52).

DE'ONDRE WESLEY was signed to the Bills practice squad after a stint with the Baltimore Ravens practice squad. Prior to entering the NFL, Wesley played two seasons at junior institution Diablo Valley College before transferring to BYU for his final two collegiate seasons.

FROM JUNIOR COLLEGE TO THE NFL

Some roads to the NFL aren't as straightforward as others. For De'ondre Wesley, he had to fight to make each step of his road count.

After completing two years at Diablo Valley College, a junior college, Wesley found himself unsure of where to go for the next part of his process. After contemplating a few different offers, Wesley committed to BYU. It was hard to adapt for the California native.

"I've never been away from my family this long. It's hard to adapt here. I know when I first got here those first couple of months were hard," Wesley told the Desert News at the time.

After overcoming that hurdle, he found success as a senior in 2014 as part of an offensive front that helped average 181 yards rushing, 278 passing, and over 37 points per game.

"I almost didn't stay, but I'm glad I did."

PERSONAL

De'ondre was born on July 28, 1992 in Antioch, California. He is married to his wife, Jordan. While at BYU, De'ondre majored in Broadcast Journalism.

27 CB TRE'DAVIOUS WHITE

5-11 192 2ND YEAR

JANUARY 16, 1995 (AGE 23)

SHREVEPORT, LOUISIANA

GREEN OAKS HIGH SCHOOL

LOUISIANA STATE

ACQUIRED 2017

Drafted by the Bills in the first round (27th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

SHOUTOUTS

- White is one of two players in the NFL with 2+ fumble recoveries, 18+ passes defended and 4+ interceptions.
- White leads all rookies in passes defended in the 2017 season (18), along with Marshon Lattimore (18), followed by Adoree' Jackson (17), and Shaquill Griffin (15).
- White has come away with two game-sealing interceptions - one against Kansas City and one against Miami.
- In week 4, White returned a fumble for a touchdown against the Atlanta Falcons, becoming the first rookie to score a defensive touchdown for the Bills since Nickell Robey-Coleman returned an interception in 2013.
- White is responsible for 5 fourth-quarter turnovers (4INTs & 1FF/FR) - tied for the most in the NFL.
- Was the starting cornerback in the Bills first playoff game since 1999.
- White concluded his rookie season with 69 total sacks, 3 tackles for loss, 4 interceptions, 18 passes defended, 1 forced fumble and 2 recoveries.

FIRST-AND-10

TRE'DAVIOUS WHITE finished his first season with the Buffalo Bills after being selected in the first round of the 2017 draft. White registered 167 tackles, 34 pass breakups and six interceptions at LSU before entering the NFL. The cornerback became a starter for the Tigers after his second game as a true freshman, and never came off the bench throughout the rest of his collegiate career.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

HOMETOWN HERO

White was born and raised in Shreveport, Louisiana on a street known as Cooper Road. The street is known for gangs and violence and those who are from there will tell you that the biggest challenge is finding a path away from the violence.

White however, was determined to make a name for himself and set an example for those looking for a role model in Shreveport. He was his high school valedictorian and earned a scholarship to LSU. Now a starting cornerback in the NFL, he continues to follow through on his promise to give back to the community.

During the 2018 offseason, White returned to host the town's first free football camp. During the 2017 season, he handed out new Adidas shoes to school children who were nominated by his alma mater's faculty and gave out gifts during the holidays.

PERSONAL

Born January 16, 1995 in Shreveport, Louisiana, Tre'Davious is the son of David White and LaShawnita Ruffins. White has a son, Tre'Davious White Jr., born in April of 2017. He graduated from LSU in December of 2016 with a degree in Sports Administration.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

NFL PLAYER HONORS

Tre'Davious was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the month in September after his performances in weeks one through three. White had an NFL-leading seven passes defended, with 16 tackles, two tackles for a loss and one interception. He is the starting corner for a defense that was ranked first in points per game (14.8) through that stretch. White was also named to the PFWA All-Rookie team for his strong season. White finished the season leading the NFL with 5 forced turnovers in the 4th quarter.

FAMILY MAN

Tre'Davious and his girlfriend, Ikea, celebrated the birth of their first and only son, Tre'Davious Jr., just days after the cornerback was drafted to the Bills in late April of 2017.

Ikea graduated with her nursing degree in Louisiana in December, and she and Tre'Davious Jr. are planning on moving up to Buffalo.

SHOUTOUTS

- Has 43.5 career sacks, which ranks as the most amongst all Bills defensive tackles in team history.
- Has appeared in 167 games since joining the Bills, which ranks as the most in franchise history by a defensive tackle.
- Selected two five Pro Bowls in his 13 seasons, joining Bruce Smith (11) and Fred Smerlas (5) as the only Bills defensive lineman to ever head to five Pro Bowls.
- Was named a 2010 AP Second-Team All-Pro after recording 76 total tackles, 5.5 sacks, 13 QB hits and 16 tackles for loss.
- In Week 17 of 2017, recorded his first career rush attempt and took the carry one yard for the score. The touchdown helped the Bills win 22-16 and earn their first playoff berth since 1999.

FIRST-AND-10

KYLE WILLIAMS enters his 14th season with the Bills after being drafted by the Bills with the first pick of the fifth round in the 2006 NFL Draft out of LSU. The veteran defensive tackle ranks as the franchise's all-time leader amongst defensive tackles in sacks and has appeared in more games than any other defensive tackle in team history.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BLOOD, SWEAT, TEARS

Entering his 13th season in 2017, Kyle Williams had never had the opportunity to play in a playoff game. That changed last season as the Bills earned the franchise's first playoff berth since 1999.

After even tallying his first career rushing score to help beat the Dolphins 22-16, Williams brought two of his sons into the locker room to celebrate the moment.

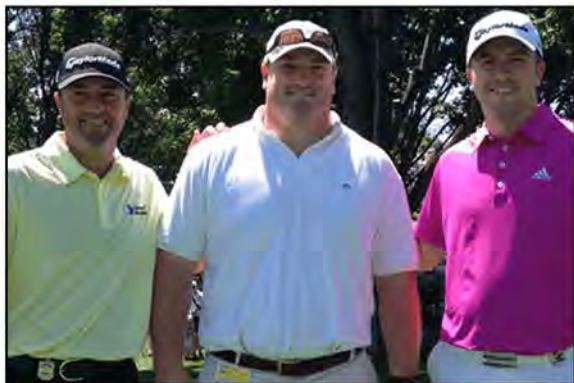

With his sons by his side, Williams broke down the team by saying, "Not us, right? Not us. Not us. Let's tank it, man. Let's just be done with it. They don't know anything about heart. They don't know anything about work. Huh? That's who we are. These boys are gonna enjoy it with their dad. They knew what was coming and they wanted to come celebrate with us."

PERSONAL

In May 2005, Kyle married the former Jill Myers. The couple has gone on to have five kids—two daughters, Kate and Anna Claire, and three sons, Harrison Reed, Gray and Bennett. Kyle majored in History/Communication Studies while at LSU.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

HITTING THE LINKS

One of Kyle's hidden talents is that he is a scratch golfer. Capable of hitting 300-yard drives and shooting even par, Kyle told Sports Illustrated's MMQB that he has ambitions of one day qualifying for the U.S. Mid-Amateur golf championship.

Williams traditionally will sneak in a round of golf at Oak Hill Country Club in Pittsford, NY prior to the start of Bills training camp. The home of the 2013 PGA Championship, Williams even shot as low as 75 on the course in 2015.

WE CHASIN

In Week 17 of 2017 with the Bills on the Miami Dolphins goal line, the team called on an unlikely source to get the ball in the end zone. Williams lined up at fullback and took the rock one yard for the score and his first career touchdown. The play had only been practiced once in the week leading up to the game.

With Pro Bowl RB LeSean McCoy having a well publicized chase of 12,000 rushing yards, Williams joked post-game that he was beginning a chase of his own.

FIRST-AND-10

XAVIER WOODSON-LUSTER enters his first full season with the Bills after joining the teams practice squad at the end of the 2017 season. Prior to joining the Bills, Woodson-Luster spent the majority of the 2017 season with the Oakland Raiders, primarily contributing on special teams. He originally entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Raiders.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

REPPING EUFALA

Woodson-Luster grew up in the small town of Eufala, Alabama, which only holds a population of about 12,000 people. However, his alma mater has consistently been a football power and has produced more NFL talent than just Xavier.

Bills S Siran Neal hails from Eufala in addition to Falcons LB Courtney Upshaw and former Giants WR Jerrel Jernigan are also Eufala natives. Both Upshaw and Jernigan played in the league and both have won Super Bowl titles.

"I remember watching Courtney and Jerrel as a young kid," Woodson-Luster said. "Me and some friends played in their backyard when we were little just one time. It was not fun because they were very physical."

Woodson-Luster still heads home to Eufala whenever he can as he is from a family of eight and he looks for every opportunity to see his brothers & sisters.

PERSONAL

Xavier is the son of Tamika Woodson and Damon Luster. He graduated from Arkansas State with a degree in Sports Management.

54 DE EDDIE YARBROUGH

6-3 259 2ND YEAR

APRIL 24, 1993 (AGE 25)

AURORA, COLORADO

GRANDVIEW HIGH SCHOOL

WYOMING

ACQUIRED 2017

Joined the Bills via free agency on April 7, 2017.

SHOUTOUTS

- In his first season with the Bills, Yarbrough appeared in all 16 games, starting six. He recorded 34 tackles and one sack.
- Earned a season high five tackles in the Bills post-season game versus Jacksonville.
- Recorded his first career sack against the Carolina Panthers during Week 2, taking down quarterback Cam Newton.
- Yarbrough was named a First-Team All-Mountain West selection during his tenure at Wyoming three times in voting by conference head coaches and media.
- Wyoming's all-time leader in tackles for loss with 39, and carved out 256 total career tackles for the Cowboys.
- Father, Eddie Yarbrough Sr, played football at Arkansas Pine Bluff.
- Cites the Special Olympics, Salute to Service, and Unified Sports as causes that he is passionate about.

FIRST-AND-10

EDDIE YARBROUGH arrived at the Buffalo Bills during free agency after a stint with the Denver Broncos. Yarbrough spent his collegiate years at Wyoming before signing as an undrafted free agent with the Broncos in 2016.

GIVING BACK

Yarbrough has a passion for helping others and helped start a Special Olympics Unified Sports program at Grandview High School during his time as a student there. He worked with Grandview's principal at the time, Kurt Wollenweber, to promote inclusion through the sport.

The program brings students with and without intellectual disabilities together to play on the same team. Grandview's Unified Sports program has gained national attention through the Unified Hoops team, which is the largest and most diverse Unified team in the country with more than 60 people involved, both special needs and able-bodied. Yarbrough says one of his favorite memories is cheering for them.

Eddie participated in the My Cause, My Cleats initiative this past season, representing and shedding light on the foundation he cares so much about.

PERSONAL

Born on April 24, 1993, the Aurora, Colorado native is the son of Dana and Eddie Yarbrough and has two older sisters. Yarbrough graduated from Wyoming with a degree in Communications and a minor in Business.

MAN OF MANY TALENTS

Though he's known for his work on the field, Eddie Yarbrough has a unique talent that he is also known for. While he was a freshman at Wyoming, Yarbrough learned to play ukulele from his friend, Siaosi Hala'api'i, who was born in Hawaii. A natural, Eddie began strumming away, learning new songs to play for his teammates.

Active on social media, Yarbrough has posted videos of him playing on YouTube and Twitter, displaying his skill.

LIFE BEYOND FOOTBALL

"I got a degree from the University of Wyoming in Communications, and I always knew from a young age that I wanted to get into broadcasting and journalism," said Yarbrough.

Versatile by nature, Yarbrough was on the broadcasting team in 2016 for the Arizona Bowl between Air Force and South Alabama. Yarbrough hopes that when his time comes to leave the game, he'll be ready to tackle the world of broadcasting.

One of the most accomplished front office executives in NFL history, Bill Polian helped build multiple successful franchises during his 24 years as a general manager. In all, his teams made 17 playoff trips, eight conference championship games and five Super Bowl appearances, including winning Super Bowl XLI with the Indianapolis Colts.

Widely praised as both a top talent evaluator and influential executive, Polian is the first sixtime recipient of the NFL Executive of the Year award from The Sporting News and during his time in Buffalo he redesigned the franchise from a last place team in 1985 to the forefront of the league with appearances in Super Bowl XXV, Super Bowl XXVI, Super Bowl XXVII and Super Bowl XXVIII. Working alongside Owner Ralph C. Wilson, Jr.

and Head Coach Marv Levy, Polian's eye for talent and negotiating prowess brought a bevy of outstanding players to Buffalo. In fact, of the 47 Bills at the first two Super Bowls, 45 came to Buffalo during Polian's tenure.

His acquisitions included the 1986 signing of QB Jim Kelly from the USFL and the 1987 trade for LB Cornelius Bennett. Additional draft picks Polian made in Buffalo included DE Bruce Smith, OT Will Wolford, RB Thurman Thomas and WR Andre Reed. He built a team that would reverse the Bills record from 8-40 from 1984-86 to a 58-22 mark from 1988-92. During his time in Buffalo, 13 Bills drafted or obtained by Polian made a total of 49 Pro Bowl appearances. In all, Polian brought in five players who would end up in the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Jim Kelly, James Lofton, Andre Reed, Bruce Smith and Thurman Thomas), as well as Head Coach Marv Levy.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Responsible for putting together the only NFL team to go to four consecutive Super Bowls
- Brought six future Hall of Famers to Buffalo (Jim Kelly, James Lofton, Andre Reed, Bruce Smith, Thurman Thomas and Head Coach Marv Levy)

Andre Reed ended his 16-year career as the most accomplished wide receiver to ever play for the Buffalo Bills. The 6-2, 190-pound Kutztown product led the Bills in receiving from 1986 to 1992 and then again in 1994, 1996 and 1997 on his way to racking up the Bills' career receiving records for receptions (941) and receiving yards (13,095).

After being selected by Buffalo with the team's first choice in the fourth round of the 1985 NFL Draft, Reed emerged as one of the elite wideouts in the league during the 1989 season when he caught 88 passes for 1,312 yards and nine touchdowns.

Reed would go on to provide a dynamic presence on all four of the Bills' AFC Championship teams—leading the team in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns during the four-year run.

A seven-time Pro Bowler, Reed recorded a franchise record 36 100-yard receiving games (regular season) as a Bill. Reed also ranks as the franchise leader in games played with 221 and is tied with Bruce Smith as the franchise's all-time leaders in years of service with 15 seasons.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to seven straight Pro Bowls spanning from 1988 to 1994
- Bills franchise leader in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns
- Named to the Bills 50th Season All-Time Team in 2009

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The impact Ralph Wilson, Jr. had on professional football culminated in 2009 with his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

For starters, he was the only original AFL owner to keep his team in its originating city. The role he played in the AFL-NFL merger, his presence on nearly every NFL committee and his passion for the game as one who has always had the league's best interests at heart before his own team has led many to refer to him as the NFL's "voice of reason."

Under his direction as owner, the Bills won two AFL Championships in 1964 and 1965 and were the only AFL team to make the postseason in four consecutive years (1963-66). Later, his Bills would become the only team ever to win four consecutive AFC championships (1990-93) and appear in four straight Super Bowls. He was honored with numerous awards, including the Pete Rozelle Award from the Touchdown Club in New Orleans, the NFL Alumni's "Order of the Leather Helmet" and the "Timmie" Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington D.C. In 2008, Mr. Wilson received the Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. (Reds) Bagnell Award for Contributions to the Game of Football and the inaugural Lamar Hunt Award for Professional Football at the 101 Awards in Kansas City. At the turn of the century, The Buffalo News named Ralph Wilson, Jr. as the "Top Sports Figure" of the region in the past millennium.

Widely regarded as one of the most dominant defensive players ever to play in the National Football League, Bruce Smith began his tenure with the Buffalo Bills in 1985. Over the next 19 seasons, Smith would amass more sacks (200) than any other player in NFL history. In Buffalo, Smith anchored the defense for 15 years, which ranks first (along with WR Andre Reed) for the most seasons played in a Bills uniform. In 10 of those years, Buffalo reached the postseason.

Taken with the first overall pick in the 1985 NFL Draft, Smith started 13 games his rookie year and collected 48 tackles and 6.5 sacks. Those numbers jumped to 63 and 15.0, respectively, in 1986.

Perhaps his finest year came in 1990, when he posted 101 tackles, 19.0 sacks and 14 QB pressures while the team won its first of four consecutive AFC Championships. Smith was named to the Pro Bowl 11 times in his career and was the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1990 and 1996.

Known for his ability to get to the opposing quarterback, Smith racked up sacks against 74 different quarterbacks and against every team but three: San Diego, Buffalo, and Baltimore. He ranks first in NFL history with 13 seasons of 10 or more sacks and second on the all-time postseason sack list with 14.5. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade team in both the 1980's and 1990's. Smith was the AFC Defensive Player of the Week eight times during his Bills tenure, and Defensive Player of the Month six times. Extremely durable, Smith ranks 16th on the all-time games played list with 279.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- NFL's all-time sack leader with 200.
- Bills' all-time sack leader with 171.
- Selected to 11 Pro Bowls.
- NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1990 and 1996

Thurman Thomas developed into one of the NFL's most versatile and dangerous offensive players in his 13 years in the league. He was also known as one of the team's most emotional leaders for the Buffalo Bills – a team that won more games (103) than any AFC team in the 1990s.

His ability to catch the ball as well as run with it was a key ingredient to the Bills' "No Huddle" offensive attack. The team improved to 13-3 in 1990 as Thomas led the NFL in all-purpose yards. He rushed for 1,297 yards and scored 11 touchdowns while catching 49 passes for 532 yards and two touchdowns. With the versatile back leading the way, the Bills marched through the playoffs to the first of their unprecedented four straight Super Bowl berths.

In 1991, Thomas amassed more than 2,000 all-purpose yards, just the 11th player ever to do so. His league-leading yardage output included 1,407 yards on the ground and an additional 631 yards on a career-high 62 receptions. He scored 12 touchdowns. He reached the 2,000-yard total again the following season which marked a record fourth straight season of leading the NFL in yards from scrimmage.

Named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, Thomas was selected first- or second-team All-Pro and All-AFC five times, and was voted to the Pro Bowl five straight years. Thomas retired as the NFL's ninth ranked rusher with 12,074 yards and added another 4,458 yards on 472 catches. He scored 65 rushing and 23 receiving touchdowns in his 13-season career.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- First NFL player to lead the NFL in yards from scrimmage in four consecutive seasons (1989-92)
- Third back in history to record 400 receptions and 10,000 rushing yards
- Five-time Pro Bowl selection and 1991 NFL Most Valuable Player

In the 1970s, Joe DeLamielleure and his Buffalo Bills offensive line mates were dubbed the "Electric Company," because they "turned the Juice loose." The "Juice" of course was Hall of Fame running back O.J. Simpson. An All-American and three-time All-Big Ten performer at Michigan State, "Joe D" was selected in the first round of the 1973 NFL Draft by the Bills.

Extremely durable and dependable, DeLamielleure played in 185 consecutive games during his 13 playing seasons with the Bills and the Cleveland Browns. A starter from the first game of his rookie season, DeLamielleure started in every game for eight seasons in Buffalo before being traded to Cleveland in 1980. He went on to become the most honored lineman of the Bills' respected front wall.

Eight times during his career he was selected first- or second-team All-Pro; seven times he was named first- or second-team All-AFC, and six times he was named to the Pro Bowl. Since 1970, only two Hall of Fame guards, John Hannah with 10 and Gene Upshaw with seven, were named All-Pro more often.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to six straight Pro Bowls from 1976-1981
- First or second-team All-Pro from 1974-1980, 1983
- Named to the 1970s All-Decade Team

James Lofton's speed and soft hands made him an immediate deep-threat receiver from the moment he entered the pros in 1978.

It was something he would remain throughout his long career with the Green Bay Packers, the Los Angeles Raiders, Buffalo Bills, Los Angeles Rams and the Philadelphia Eagles. In 16 seasons, Lofton caught 764 passes for 14,004 yards – an average of 18.3 yards per catch. His 14,004 career-reception yardage mark was an NFL best at the time of his retirement, while his 43 games with 100 or more yards receiving ranked third.

In 1987, Lofton was traded to the Raiders, and two years later joined the Bills. In Buffalo, he reemerged as one of the game's premier deep-threats.

In 1991, at the age of 35, the still-speedy receiver became the oldest player in league history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

Extremely durable, Lofton was the first NFL player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s. Many of his 75 touchdown receptions came on long passes when he simply outran the opposition.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- When he retired in 1993, his total of 14,004 yards was No. 1 all-time
- Selected to eight Pro Bowls (1979, 1981-86, 1992), named All-Pro four times and All-NFC three times
- First player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s

A strong-armed passer with a "linebacker's mentality," Kelly virtually rewrote the Bills' record book for quarterbacks. Only three players in NFL history had reached the 30,000-yard career passing mark faster. Eight times during his NFL career he passed for more than 3,000 yards in a season, and 26 times he passed for more than 300 yards in a game.

With Kelly and teammates Thurman Thomas and Andre Reed, the Bills possessed a highly potent offense during the 1990s. Kelly's quick decisiveness and fast paced "no-huddle" offense terrorized opposing defenses. In 11 seasons in Buffalo, Kelly led the Bills to the playoffs eight times.

In 17 playoff game appearances, including four consecutive Super Bowls, he passed for 3,863 yards and 21 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, his 84.4 passer rating ranked sixth all-time and was second when compared to Hall of Fame quarterbacks. His 35,467 career passing yards ranked tenth in NFL history; his 2,874 completions ranked eighth; and his 237 touchdowns ranked thirteenth.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to four Pro Bowls: 1987, 1990-1992
- Led the Bills to an unprecedented four straight Super Bowls from 1990-1993
- Passed for more than 3,000 yards eight times

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

In 1986, when Marv Levy was chosen to direct the fortunes of the Buffalo Bills, he brought with him more than 30 years of coaching experience. In 1987, his first full season with the Bills, the team returned to respectability with a 7-8 record and were in the playoff hunt throughout most of the season.

The following season the team posted a 12-4 record and won their first of six AFC Eastern Division titles. With his high-powered "no-huddle" offense, Levy went on to set a new standard for NFL coaches as he led his AFC championship team to four consecutive Super Bowl appearances.

From 1988 through 1997, the Bills were first in the AFC in winning percentage and second only to the San Francisco 49ers in the NFL. Levy, the winningest coach in Bills' history, recorded a 112-70 regular season record and was 11-8 in the playoffs during his 11 seasons with the Bills. He was named NFL Coach of the Year in 1988 and AFC Coach of the Year in 1988, 1993 and 1995.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Was NFL Coach of the Year in 1988, AFC Coach of the year in 1988, 1993 and 1995
- Led the Bills to the playoffs eight times, including four Super Bowls
- Won six AFC East Division titles

Equally adept at pass blocking and run blocking, Billy Shaw's ability to pull out in front of runners was a perfect fit for the Bills. Shaw's speed, strength, and natural ability made him "the driving force of the offensive unit" according to his former offensive line coach Jerry Smith.

Especially effective on short-yardage scoring plays, Shaw would pull out from his left guard position followed by heavy-duty runners Cookie Gilchrist and Wray Carlton. Bills quarterback Jack Kemp or his super-sub Daryle Lamonica would follow the powerful trio of blockers – often untouched – into the end zone.

A key member of the Bills teams that won AFL titles in 1964 and 1965, Shaw was named a firstteam All-AFL selection five times (1962-66) and also a second team All-AFL choice in 1962, 1968 and 1969. He was selected to play in eight AFL All-Star Games and was named to the All-Time AFL Team. Named to pro football's All-Decade Team of the 1960s, Shaw is the first Hall of Fame member to play his entire career in the AFL.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped lead the Bills to back-to-back AFL titles in 1964 and 1965
- Named All-AFL five times (1962-1966)
- First player to spend entire career in the AFL to be elected to the Hall of Fame

O. J. Simpson, a two-time All-American from the University of Southern California and the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner, was one of history's most heralded rookies when the Buffalo Bills selected him with the first overall pick in the 1969 draft.

His career record for 11 seasons confirms the rave notices were well founded. He rushed for 11,236 yards and scored 456 points on 76 touchdowns in his career.

O.J. may be best remembered for his sensational 1973 season when he became the first back in history to rush for over 2,000 yards. With 219 yards in the next-to-last game against New England and a 200-yard output in the finale with the New York Jets, Simpson totaled 2,003 yards, tops for a 14-game season.

Simpson also led the league in rushing four years: 1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976.

In various selections, he was named NFL Player of the Year in 1972, 1973 and 1975. He was both All-AFC and All-Pro five straight years from 1972-76. He played in six Pro Bowls, winning Player of the Game honors in the 1973 game.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Won four NFL rushing titles (1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976)
- Became the first back to ever rush for more than 2,000 yards in 1973 with 2003 yards.
- Named NFL Player of the Year in 1972, 1973 and 1975, and also named to both All-Pro and All-AFC squads from 1972-76.

BUFFALO BILLS WALL OF FAME

The Buffalo Bills Wall of Fame was created in 1980 to honor former players, administrators and coaches who have played significant roles in the team's history. To be eligible for induction, an individual must have played with the Bills for at least three years and be retired from professional football. Also eligible are other individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the Bills, including administrators and coaches. Selections are made by a distinguished panel composed of club personnel and media members.

Ralph C. Wilson Jr. Statue

The Buffalo Bills announced in March 2015 that the organization would commission a statue to be made of Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. The statue is displayed outside of New Era Field in Founder's Plaza.

Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. passed away at the age of 95. Mr. Wilson was the sole owner of the Bills franchise for 54 seasons after purchasing the team on October 28, 1959. Under his leadership, the Bills won two American Football League Championships in 1964 and 1965 and appeared in an unprecedented four consecutive Super Bowls in the 1990s. Mr. Wilson along with former Bills Head Coach Marv Levy, former General Manager Bill Polian plus eight of his players have earned football's highest honor by being inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame.

The construction of the statue was a collaborative effort between Terry and Kim Pegula and Mary Wilson. Founder's Plaza, the current location of the statue, is located northwest of The Bills Store at New Era Field.

Mr. Wilson's statue is the first statue in history to be displayed on the grounds of New Era Field. The life-size statue is based on a photo taken of Mr. Wilson with Thurman Thomas along the sidelines on October 21, 1990 during Buffalo's 30-27 victory over the New York Jets.

34 RB THURMAN THOMAS

5-10 206 13 YEARS

MAY 16, 1966

HOUSTON, TEXAS

WILLOWRIDGE HS

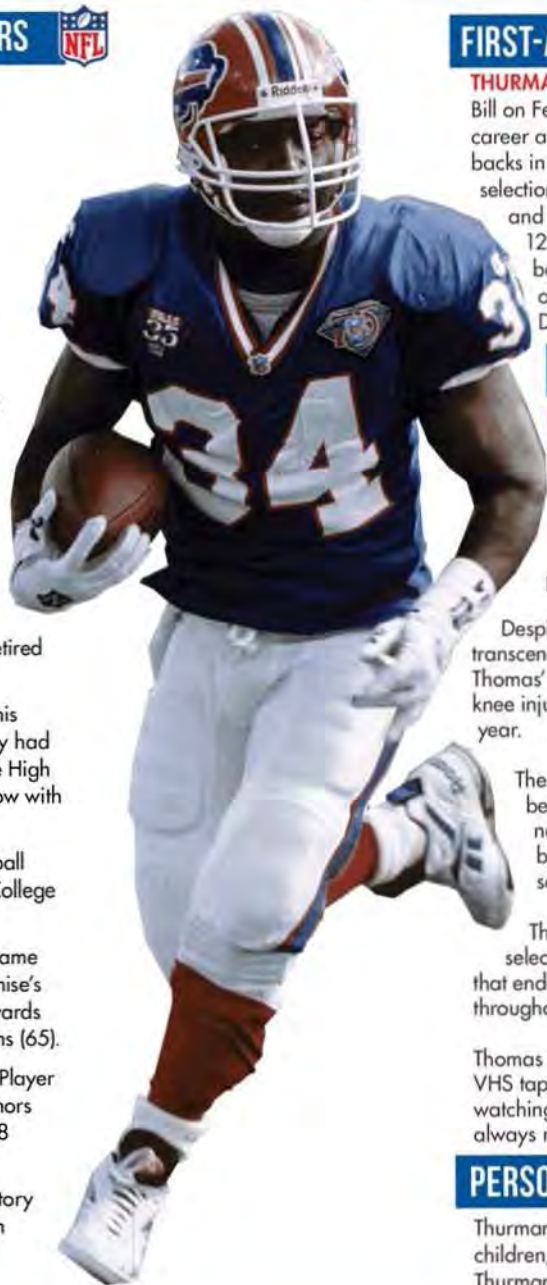

OKLAHOMA STATE

ACQUIRED 1988

Drafted by the Bills in the second round (40th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft.

SHOUTOUTS

- Is one of only three players in franchise history to have his number retired. Thomas' #34 joins Jim Kelly's #12 (retired in 2001) and Bruce Smith's #78 (retired in 2016).
- Wore #34 at all three levels of his playing career and subsequently had his jersey retired at Willowridge High School, Oklahoma State and now with the Buffalo Bills.
- Was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2007 and the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008.
- Inducted onto the Bills Wall of Fame in 2005 and ranks as the franchise's all-time leader in both rushing yards (11,938) and rushing touchdowns (65).
- Named the NFL Most Valuable Player in 1991. Garnered the MVP honors after leading the NFL with 2,038 scrimmage yards.
- Is still the only player in NFL history to lead the league in yards from scrimmage in four consecutive seasons (1989-1993).

FIRST-AND-10

THURMAN THOMAS retired as a Buffalo Bill on February 27, 2001, finishing his career as one of the most prolific running backs in NFL history. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, three-time first-team All-Pro, and former NFL MVP, Thomas spent 12 seasons with the Bills (1988-99) before playing the final season of his career with the Miami Dolphins in 2000.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

REMEMBER THE NAME

A Heisman trophy candidate and Big Eight conference player of the year in 1987 as a senior, Thomas left Oklahoma State as one of the most heralded players in the nation.

Despite his numerous plaudits and transcendent abilities on the field, Thomas' draft stock took a hit due to a knee injury he suffered during his junior year.

Thomas even went so far as saving a VHS tape of the 1988 NFL Draft and watching it back to ensure he would always remember the feeling.

PERSONAL

Thurman and his wife, Patti, have four children, Olivia, Angel, Annika, and Thurman III. The Thomas family resides in Buffalo, NY.

PUTTING THE COMMUNITY FIRST

The Buffalo Bills organization is committed to improving the quality of life in Western New York through community outreach and charitable investment with a focus in the areas of health & safety, youth football and military appreciation. With the platform that the Bills players and coaches are given, they've always made it a point to make an impact in the Western New York community and that is no different during the 2017 season and 2018 offseason.

2018 SEASON

TOYOTA ROOKIE CLUB

For the Buffalo Bills, days off from football are an opportunity to give back to the community. In September, the Buffalo Bills Toyota Rookie Club came together to host a NFL Flag Clinic powered by USA Football at New Era Field. Inviting local youth football and NFL Flag participants from the Western New York Football Alliance member leagues and local NFL Flag organizations, the Bills rookies worked alongside coaches to guide the youngsters through a series of NFL Flag stations.

Not only did the event provide participants with a unique opportunity to learn football fundamentals and techniques in a fun and safe environment, it also allowed them to spend time with some of their hometown heroes. Able to relate to the kids, Bills rookie cornerback Tre'Davious White explained how important it is for children to have these types of experiences.

"I was in their shoes years ago," said White. "I know how important it is to them to actually see the person under the helmet. I know it's going to be a day they remember, so we're just trying to make more memories by being interactive and being fun guys. I'm having a great time and I feel like they are too."

The rookies continued the rookie club with events in October and December. In preparation for Halloween, the Buffalo Bills Toyota Rookie Club came together once again for a night filled with all things spooky at Frightworld. Working with the United Way of Buffalo & Erie County, the rookies teamed up with kids from Buffalo Public Schools 32- Bennett Park Montessori and 33 Bilingual Center, to tour the attraction. On Tuesday, Dec. 12, over fifteen Bills players joined 100 kids from 11 different community organizations for the Bills Toyota Rookie Club annual holiday party. This year, the event took place at the Hamburg Fairgrounds Festival of Lights. The players had the opportunity to spend time with young fans and participate in several holiday-themed activities, including meeting Santa, interactive games and riding on a bus through the lights display.

WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR

For his achievements, both on the field and in the community, the Buffalo Bills have selected veteran linebacker Lorenzo Alexander as the team's 2017 Walter Payton Man of the Year nominee.

Buffalo Bills veteran linebacker Lorenzo Alexander, is a perfect example of how hard work, perseverance and commitment can lead to success. Throughout his 11-year NFL tenure, Alexander has been defined not only by his work on the field, but by his philanthropic efforts. His unconventional NFL journey has led him to five different cities and despite facing challenges along the way, Alexander has managed to not only overcome them, but thrive in each environment. It's for these reasons and many more, that the Buffalo Bills selected Alexander as the team's nominee for the prestigious 2017 Walter Payton Man of the Year Award.

BILLS IN THE COMMUNITY

When he came to Buffalo as a free agent in 2016, Alexander brought with him his passion for creating positive change. Integrating himself into the Bills locker room didn't take long for the seasoned pro, nor did connecting with the Western New York Community. A known contributor on special teams, Alexander quickly established himself as a threat on defense. Posting a career-high sack record in 2016, with 12.5 on the campaign, Alexander earned Pro Bowl honors for the second time and his first time on defense.

Well-respected by his teammates, coaches and the entire Bills organization, Alexander continues to use his platform to inspire those around him to act. Giving his all in everything he does, he's touched the lives of many locally and across the country. In addition to the work he does with his ACES Foundation, which he started in Oakland, California in 2008, Alexander is a consistent participant in Bills community outreach initiatives. Doing his part to make a difference, Alexander is involved with a variety of programs such as the Bills Player and Coach Community Season Ticket Donation program, the Play 60 program and the annual Thanksgiving Blitz. This season, he's also paid visits to the Belle Center, the Crucial Catch Family Fun Night and has taken the time to mentor students at South Park High School.

A role model, loving father and devoted husband, Alexander has earned recognition from his peers around the League. Recently named as a finalist for the Athletes in Action Bart Starr Award, he was also selected as the 2017 Call to Courage Award winner. With his Walter Payton Man of the Year Award nomination, Alexander will join an impressive list of past Bills winners.

PLAY 60

The Buffalo Bills, Independent Health Foundation and the Buffalo Niagara Heart Association launched the Play 60 Challenge and Fitness for Kids Challenge on Tuesday, Oct. 3, at Buffalo Public School 32 - Bennett Park Montessori. Several Buffalo Bills players attended, hosting a pep rally and an outdoor gym class for the kids.

Tuesday, Oct. 3, proved to be the perfect day for the Buffalo Bills, Independent Health Foundation, and the Buffalo Niagara American Heart Association to launch the Play 60 Challenge and Fitness for Kids Challenge. The programs, which launched in over five hundred classrooms in the area, aim to encourage children between grades two and five to participate in at least 60 minutes of physical activity a day, while also encouraging healthy nutritional choices.

The initiative kicked off at Buffalo Public School 32 - Bennett Park Montessori with a pep rally and Play 60 gym class lead by several Buffalo Bills including Colton Schmidt, Joe Webb, Preston Brown, Reid Ferguson, Joe Banyard, Lorenzo Alexander, Conor McDermott, Andre Holmes, Khari Lee.

As the Bills entered the pep rally, they were greeted with high fives and handmade signs from children decked out in Bills apparel. After introducing themselves and sharing tips for maintaining a healthy lifestyle, they welcomed questions from the youngsters. From the fun and informative Q&A session, the kids learned everything from the players' favorite healthy snacks, to their favorite dance moves – FYI Reid Ferguson can dab.

Following the pep rally, the Bills had a chance to show the kids some of the ways they stay active. As each child rotated through the different activity stations, they spent quality time with their role models. Encouraging healthy habits was something that came easy to many players.

During the event, Bills wide receiver Andre Holmes reminisced about how he loved being active and playing outside as a kid.

"When I was kid and there were professional players that went out in the community and showed them drills or told them how important it is to be healthy, it meant a lot to me," stated Holmes. "To be able to do that for the kids, when I am in the position [as a professional athlete] is important."

As the drills progressed, it was hard to say who was more excited to be outside playing, the Bills players or the kids.

Overall, the event was a remarkable success. Not only did the children pick up on the drills and score a few touchdowns, but they left equipped with knowledge on healthy nutritional habits and the importance of physical activity.

"The children were so excited," stated Principal Marianna Cecchini. "I think they are going to talk about this for the rest of their lives. It is really phenomenal to have so many Bills come."

PLAY 60

The Buffalo Bills paired up with Independent Health Foundation and the Buffalo Niagara Heart Association for the largest Play 60 event this season. Children from all over Western New York joined 18 Bills players at the ADPRO Sports Training Center for a morning of fun physical activity.

Throughout the season, the Bills have paired up with Independent Health Foundation and the Buffalo Niagara Heart Association to host several Play 60 events. To wrap up a great year of participation in the Play 60 Challenge and Fitness for Kids Challenge, the Bills invited over 300 kids from 12 different schools throughout Western New York to the ADPRO Sports Training Center for a morning filled with physical activity. Children in grades second through fifth participated in drills led several Bills players.

The event was a huge success for both the players and all the children who participated.

"It's huge," stated Independent Health Project Coordinator, Anna Jaremko. "For these kids, these are their idols. I've watched them come here and they get excited and look up to all these players.... I think it shows them they can really amount to anything. You have all these different players who do this amazing thing in life and they are all physically active. It teaches the kids they can look up to that and really aim for that in their lives too."

The children rotated excitedly through several different drills including a parachute station, catching and passing drills.

"I always do the parachute, I called dibs on it last year," stated punter Colton Schmidt. "It's really easy for us to show up and have a good time with them."

Almost as excited as the kids participating, Bills players were all smiles as they cheered and instructed each group.

"If you look around everyone's smiling and look like they are having a great time," stated wide receiver Zay Jones. "It's almost like recess time at school that they can enjoy and we can enjoy."

Though the overall message of the day was encouraging the children to lead active lifestyles by showing them fun ways to get their heart racing, many players felt equally impacted by the opportunity to spend time with young fans.

"They love it," stated safety Micah Hyde. "It kind of puts your job into perspective every time you are around some kids. They still see you as a super hero and it's crazy... Sometimes your job is overwhelming, you get stressed out, but when you come here with a bunch of kids smiling and having fun, it's stress free and it humbles you."

SALUTE TO SERVICE

In recognition of the NFL's Salute to Service initiative, the Bills celebrated all five branches of the military in a spectacular pregame ceremony prior to the Week 10 Saints game. Each season, in addition to the team's year-round military appreciation and outreach, the Buffalo Bills pay special tribute to the United States Military during the Salute to Service game. In recognition of the NFL's Salute to Service initiative, which honors and raises funds for current military members and veterans, the Bills celebrated all five branches of the military in a spectacular pregame ceremony prior to the Week 10 Saints game.

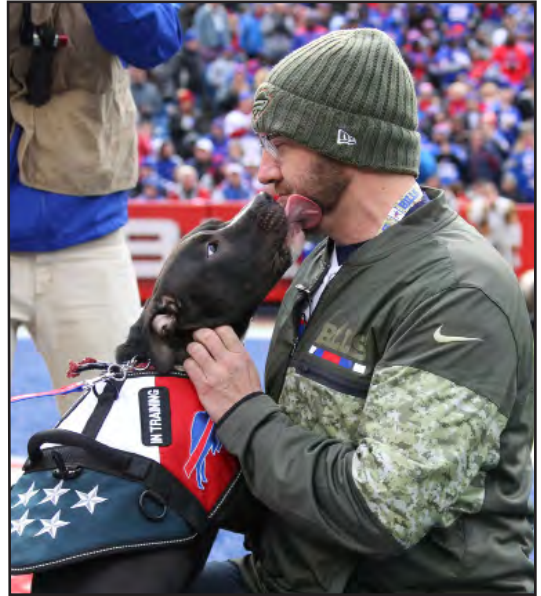

To kick off the awe-inspiring ceremony, members from the United States Army, Marine Corps, Navy, Air Force and Coast Guard were welcomed to the field. Recognized for their bravery, unwavering commitment to our country and dedication to protecting our freedom, the service members received an emotional round of applause from thousands of fans. The Bills also invited active and retired service members in the crowd to join in the salute by standing.

The moving ceremony continued, as United States Navy Airman First Class Christina Bagley sang "God Bless America." Following the team introduction, Bagley, who serves as a vocalist for the Heritage of America Band's Full Spectrum, made her way back to the field to perform the national anthem. During the beautiful rendition, spectators watched in amazement as a full-field flag unfurled and waved on cue.

BILLS IN THE COMMUNITY

The picturesque moment featured a military flyover by the Helicopter Sea Combat Squadron NINE Tridents, based out of Norfolk, Virginia. Led by Commanding Officer Ryan Dexter, a Western New York native and longtime Bills fan, three of the squadron's helicopters made their way over New Era Field.

"It was awesome," said Commanding Officer Dexter. "It was one of the highlights of my career. It was awesome coming across the edge of the stadium and to see the flag down there was very neat."

Commanding Officer Dexter, who attended his first Bills game when he was seven years old, was ecstatic at the opportunity to take part in the ceremony.

"We were out on the George H. W. Bush carrier doing some exercises and we got notice that they were looking for somebody to do the Bills game flyover," explained Commanding Officer Dexter. "I immediately threw my hand in the air for us. We were able to work through our wing to get approval to come up. The crew had a fantastic time and they're all big city of Buffalo fans now. The hospitality by the Bills organization was fantastic and on behalf of the rest of the squadron, we really appreciate it."

Although the pregame festivities had concluded, the Bills had one more surprise in store. Walking out of the tunnel and onto the field, Bills Owner Terry Pegula presented Master Sergeant James Kozma of the United States Marine Corps with a service dog. The breathtaking moment captured the spirit of the day.

"To meet Mr. Pegula is a great honor," said Master Sergeant Kozma when reflecting on the experience. "He's done a lot for his community and having been born and raised here, it's a really big deal for what he has done for his community...For him to present it the way it did, it was definitely a moment I won't forget."

2018 OFFSEASON

Bills Head Coach Sean McDermott and his wife Jamie found time to visit the Women & Children's Hospital of Buffalo this offseason. They introduced themselves to dozens of families and made longlasting memories. "It was awesome," said Coach McDermott. "It's funny, I get more out of this than I give. But just great to see the looks on the children's faces and to shed some joy on an adverse situation for some families."

COACHES DAYS OUT

Several Buffalo Bills coaches served a special Valentine's Day lunch at the Buffalo City Mission. "For us to be doing this, to be in the community and to see the joy in their faces when they see us serving them, that fills my heart with joy," stated defensive coordinator Leslie Frazier. "Just to be able to serve and see the response we get from them."

Saturday, June 2, Bills Head Coach Sean McDermott, offensive coordinator Brian Daboll, defensive coordinator Leslie Frazier and many other members of the Buffalo Bills coaching staff, lent a helping hand to the community through Habitat for Humanity Buffalo. Habitat for Humanity is a non-profit organization that helps place families in affordable housing in the Western New York Community and around the world. Housing insecurity is something that touches about half of adults at some point in their life and the Bills were grateful they could make a difference on such a pressing issue.

ROOKIES IN THE CITY

Bills first-round draft picks cornerback Tremaine Edmunds and quarterback Josh Allen joined the rest of the 2018 Bills rookie class in visiting Buffalo Public School No. 99 Stanley Makowski Early Childhood Center to read and engage with local children. Working with the youngsters proved inspiring and the Bills newcomers were very pleased with how the event turned out.

"It was a really cool experience to see their faces light up," explained Allen.

The rookies' faces lit up later that day too as they received a tour of the New Era Headquarters in downtown Buffalo. The guys got to try on a variety of caps and visit the design room. All in all, the rookies had a productive day in Western New York, getting to know more about their new home.

COACHES DAYS OUT

Bills rookies joined team veterans at the ADPRO Sports Training Center last Saturday, June 2, for a NFL Flag tournament. A few of the players who helped coach and cheer on the young athletes, ages five through 17, include quarterback Josh Allen, defensive tackle Harrison Phillips and linebacker Lorenzo Alexander. NFL Flag is a leading flag football program, which promotes high safety standards, education and support. The program believes that football can impart profound lessons and provide youth with skills that help them grow and reach their full potential. The Bills players were excited to help teach the local youth through a fun day of flag football.
